The Star for 1882.

The past year has been a conspicuously prosperous one for trade, industry, and legitimate effort of every kind in the United States. Amid such favorable conditions THE STAR has shone with increased brilliancy, and has been rewarded with more than an average share of the general advancement and prosperity. THE STAR'S press-rooms, a few years ago, were established on a scale which was then deemed ample to accommodate even a rapid growth for a long period; but it has already not infrequently occurred that THE STAR'S powerful presses have been strained to their utmost capacity to meet the demands of its circulation.

The unprecedented success of THE STAR is due to very obvious causes:

It contains all the news of the day, intelligently condensed and attractively presented. Its readers are not inflicted with irrelevant "padding" and verbiage.

It is confessedly the best local paper in New York City, and this distinction makes it the best reflex of the daily life of the great metropolis, where the wealth, energy, and brains of the country centre.

It is the only recognized Democratic morning journal in the Democratic City of New York, with a population exceeding a million and a quarter.

It devotes close and constant attention to public interests in Brooklyn, Jersey City, Newark, and other outlying suburbs of the metropolis, thereby extending its field of influence and usefulness.

Its special correspondence from Washington is notable for trustworthiness and vigilance, as are also its special dispatches from Albany during the sessions of the State Legislature. It gives a comprehensive daily digest of foreign events by cable, and has secured the services of an able corps of special correspondents in London, Paris, and Dublin. Its domestic news covers the entire home field.

Its literary merits are unsurpassed by any of our leading daily journals. Its columns abound with fresh, original articles from the pens of alert journalists, well-known literateurs and statesmen of national reputation. Many novel and exclusive features have been added during the past year.

What THE STAR has already achieved is the best guarantee of what it will accomplish in the future. Henceforth, as hitherto, it will be an earnest advocate of Democratic principles and methods; wedded to no faction, but fearlessly exercising its right of independent criticism to expose wrongdoing and correct abuses no matter where they may be found. Giving heed to principles and deeds, rather than to names or professions, THE STAR'S approbation or condemnation is not restricted by the lines of party.

The Sunday edition is a rich mine of entertaining, original literature, added to the news of the day, and is consequently very popular with persons living in the country who do not subscribe for any metropolitan daily. Romance, poetry, travel, adventure, fiction, and the best efforts of leading authors, are all presented to the general reader in an ever-varying kaleidoscope.

With these facts stated briefly, THE STAR comes before the public at the beginning of a new year.

TERMS.

THE STAR'S terms for 1882 are as follows:

By mail $6.00 per year, or 50 cents per month (including Sunday edition), postage paid.

Sunday edition $1.50 per year, or 40 cents per quarter (postage paid).

Delivered by carrier in any part of New York, Brooklyn, or Jersey City at 15 cents per week.

RELIABLE FOOD PRODUCTS.

Great progress has been made within a few years in manufacturing food products, and the standard of quality has been raised to a point far beyond that which formerly obtained. We claim that this has, to a considerable extent, been due to our efforts; as the Largest Manufacturers and Dealers in the world in this line, we consider it to our interest to manufacture only PURE and WHOLESOME goods, and pack them in a tidy and attractive manner. All goods bearing our name are guaranteed to be of superior quality, and dealers are authorized to refund the purchase price in any case where customers have cause for dissatisfaction. It is, therefore, to the interest of both dealers and consumers to use THURBER'S BRANDS.

H. K. & F. B. THURBER & CO.,

Importers, Manufacturers and Dealers in Food Products,

NEW YORK.

NOTICE.—All of our canned goods are put up with a special quality of tin, and most of them being hermetically sealed while fresh at the sources of supply, preserve the fresh natural flavors, and are REALLY FRESHER, MORE WHOLESOME AND PALATABLE than many so-called "fresh" articles which are exposed for sale during considerable periods of time in city markets.

KNOX, the Hatter's world-renowned HATS.

THE PRESENT ISSUE.

ANTI-MONOPOLY AND WHAT IT MEANS.

DECLARATION OF PRINCIPLES

ADOPTED AT TAMMANY HALL, OCTOBER 8, 1881.

TO THE PEOPLE OF AMERICA.

The steady and persistent efforts that are being made on behalf of the moneyed corporations of the country, not alone to destroy vested rights, but to vitiate the Executive, Legislative and Judicial branches of the National, State and Municipal Governments, warn us that, unless the people, in their capacity as sovereigns, rise en masse and assert their prerogatives, they will speedily be shorn of power and forced to submit to the onerous exactions which monopolies arbitrarily enforce.

It has been always the boast of the Democratic party, speaking through Tammany Hall, that its chief labors and benefits were bestowed upon the industrial classes in their terrible struggle against the encroachments of pitiless monopolies. Long years ago the Democratic party arrayed itself on the side of the toiling masses who sought a refuge upon our friendly shores to escape the persecutions and rigors of despotic rule, and the alien and sedition laws received their deathblow. The old and familiar battle-cry of "Free Trade and Sailors' Rights," is another link in the great chain of facts which go to prove how undeviatingly true the Democratic party has been to the interests of those who stand most in need of protection from the arrogance, abuse and heartless persecutions of monopolies and their leaders and advocates. The growth of moneyed corporations and their insatiable greed for power and wealth are no new factors in the politics of the nation. They have been steadily but determinedly stretching out their tentacles, like the deadly octopus, cunningly watching and calmly waiting for the supreme moment when they could embrace the National, State and Municipal Governments in a hug of death. Daniel Webster, the renowned statesman, jurist and diplomat, in his day and generation, with almost prophetic vision, saw the great danger now upon us when he said :

"The freest Government cannot long endure, where the tendency of the law is to create a rapid accumulation of property in the hands of a few, and to render the masses of the people poor and dependent."

If Democracy means anything at all, and its teachings of a century possess any significance, the lesson taught is that Government should be so equitably conducted, laws so justly administered, society so fairly and properly regulated, that the arbitrary rule of monopolies would be an utter impossibility under our form of government. In other words, this should be in fact, as it is in name, a government of the people, by the people and for the people. The men who laid the foundation of the infant Republic cemented it with their heart's best blood, and they pledged their lives, their fortunes and their sacred honor to the establishment and perpetuity of a form of government the corner-stone, superstructure and key-stone of which should be : "Protection to the toiling many against the aggressions of the favored few."

DUTY OF THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY.

Now is the day and the present is the hour, in view of the steady growth of monopolies and their impudent assumptions of authority, for the Democracy of the nation to take a bold and aggressive stand in support of popular rights, which every day are more and more imperiled by the open encroachments of monopolistic corporations, and to hold as cardinal truths that—

The rights of the many must be protected as against the special privileges of the few;

Corporations are the creatures of State enactment and shall not become our rulers; and

Labor and capital should be so equitably adjusted as to become harmonious allies, instead of the latter using its great forces to crush the power that creates it.

The enormous wealth of the monopolies of to-day, which is being employed to debauch the Executive, Judicial and Legislative branches of government, and by which it is proposed to ride roughshod over the rights and privileges of the toiling millions, is concentrated in the hands of a comparatively few millionaires—men who turn a deaf ear to the remonstrances of the commercial, mechanical and industrial classes. They have organized combinations, syndicates, pools, cliques and corners to limit production and force up prices of the actual necessaries of life which enter into daily consumption. They have grown purse-proud, arrogant, mercenary and defiant, and by steady and persistent advances have become so strongly intrenched that only by a counter combination on the part of the sufferers can their dethronement be accomplished. The history of the few men who are the leading spirits in this great conspiracy against the rights and privileges of the people, shows how little they are to be intrusted with power, as well as how, like despots, they wield it.

LUXURIES NOT DISTURBED.

Luxuries which form a portion of their daily regimen they do not disturb; but the nourishment, fuel, light and medicines which poor men must have or die are the staples which they seize upon and hold until they have squeezed out of the consumers the last penny of their hard earnings. These monopoly kings own or control the vast railroad system which reaches over a continent and extends from the Atlantic to the Pacific seaboard, and, resorting to the cowardly and conscienceless expedients of the highwayman, they levy extortionate blackmail upon trade and commerce by tariff schedules secretly agreed upon and arbitrarily enforced. There is not a railroad in the land to-day that does not carry a lien in bonds and stock far in excess of the cost of construction, equipment and betterments, with such autocrats as Jay Gould, William H. Vanderbilt, Samuel J. Tilden, W. L. Scott, C. P. Huntington, Henry Villard, Trenor W. Parke, Russel Sage, J. B. Roberts, John W. Garrett, C. K. Garrison, George M. Pullman, Webster Wagner, Alonzo B. Cornell and their allies and associates have created by a watering process. This excessive issue of securities, falsely termed capital stock, has been listed on the New York and London Stock Exchanges at artificial values, through syndicates of mercenary bankers and brokers, with the sole object of unloading it upon outside speculators and thus squandering the sacred trust funds belonging to widows and orphans.

The railroads to-day owe on stocks and bonds amounting nominally to over $5,000,000,000—more than double our National Debt—a large part of which is fictitious and upon which they seek to tax the public; yet the records of the Tax Office in the City of New York show that these same men, with a boasted wealth of scores of millions of dollars, seek to evade the responsibility of taxation, and do not hesitate to make oath that "their debts are in excess of their assets." In proportion as such men as Jay Gould grow rich, the people and also the stockholders whose property they manage in notable instances become poor, and in the end bankrupt.

MONOPOLY IN KEROSENE.

Under the operations of monopolies everything conducive to existence has been seized upon, except the air we breathe; and even this has been shut out of our dwellings and stores by railroad encroachments along our leading thoroughfares, their unsightly structures destroying natural easements and their puffing engines filling our lungs with cinders and coal dust. Instead of purchasing the right of way, they have taken possession of the public highways, and are using them as their personal property. When in the soil of Pennsylvania the ingenuity of man discovered and utilized the inexhaustible oil springs, we saw what was to become the people's light all over the world. It was planted there by the Great Architect of the Universe for the use of untold generations, and made so easy of access that it would be almost as cheap as water or air. It has expanded into a vast industry and has become one of the leading staples of American commerce. In this country alone 300,000,000 gallons of petroleum are annually consumed, while twice that amount is sent abroad as an article of export. This production, so essential as an article of daily consumption, is controlled, and for many years has been under the absolute dictatorship of the most mercenary, corrupt and heartless monopoly the world ever saw. Working on a nominal capital of $3,500,000, it extorts from the many millions of consumers enough to divide among a few owners almost fabulous profits. Rivals have been crushed out with a savageness that smacks of the heartlessness with which the freebooters of olden times made their victims walk the plank, and when opponents have proven too formidable, as high as $1,000,000 has been paid for their abandonment of the field. Even railroad directors bow to the rising sun of the Standard oil monopoly, make special transportation contracts, and thus aid this giant monopoly in carrying out its nefarious designs. It is an incontrovertible fact that the Standard Oil Company really produces only one-sixtieth of the staple it deals in, and yet so great is its power that it actually dictates the price of the entire production, both crude and refined. It controls the pipe-lines that carry the native oil as it issues from the soil; it monopolizes the iron tanks in which it is transported over the rail; it dictates the price to be charged on the clarified product as it comes from the refinery, and, in fact, even the corner groceryman, who deals it out in small quantities to the consumer, is forced by this monopoly to sell at a stated price under penalty of a withdrawal of the product. Samuel Andrews, and John Rockefeller, and H. B. Payne, of Cleveland, Ohio, are the head and front of this monopoly, and so wealthy have they become that it is said by those who know that only Vanderbilt can count more millions than they. Their associates embrace members of Congress, State legislators and Judges on the Bench. Congressional investigations have been stifled, legislative inquiries have been hushed, judges have been silenced and rivals have been squelched by the free use of money in the hands of agents of this monstrous enemy of the rights of the people. Rockefeller has been able to force Jewett, Scott, and Garrett to terms, and the late Commodore Vanderbilt once said; "Rockefeller is the only man who can dictate to me." This corporation has not paid a dollar of tax to the State of Pennsylvania for the past ten years. The amount due the State reaches the enormous sum of $3,000,000.

Here we have presented the amazing spectacle of a few men, with a nominal capital of only $3,500,000, controlling the outputs and dictating the price of what in a single year amounts to about 900,000,000 gallons, of an aggregate value of $60,000,000 to $70,000,000. With active competition, such as would exist but for this crushing monopoly, the poor man's home might be lighted at less than one-half the price he is now forced to pay for the oil.

THE COAL MONOPOLY.

Citizens of America, look at the history of the coal combination, and see how this great product, so necessary to daily life and comfort, is regulated to grind the face of the people and enrich a few already enormously wealthy. A wise and beneficent Providence has planted beneath the soil and within easy reach fathomless depths of coal as a common fuel for mankind. The laborers stand ready to swing the pick and ply the shovel and turn out fuel in increasing quantities; but the monopolists have purchased the coal fields, and, under their cruel edicts, even the product is limited to create a shrinkage in yield, that they may distort the laws of supply and demand and force up the price. The New Jersey Central, Lehigh and Wilkesbarre, New York and Erie, Delaware and Hudson Canal and Coal Company, Delaware, Lackawanna and Western, Pennsylvania and Philadelphia and Reading Companies compose this monstrous monopoly, and at their secret meetings, held monthly, manipulate prices at will. Controlling the mines, as well as the modes of transit, it is within their power to prevent the accumulation of coal at tide water, and in face of the fact that mountains of the mined product impede the progress of the miners, and miles of laden cars obstruct the tracks, switches and turnouts, they recklessly create a famine in the midst of plenty, for no other purpose than to levy blackmail upon those who can ill afford to meet their outrageous demands. These monopolists have no regard for the necessities of those who have been faithful always to their trusts, and, when all other resources fail, they order a "limit in production"—which, in reality, means that the already underpaid miner, who is shut out almost entirely from the pure air of heaven, and who knows little of daylight, is to have his pittance cut down by a forced and totally unnecessary reduction of his hours of labor. Strikes are often purposely fomented, and by this cowardly plan thousands of families are reduced to starvation diet, and barefooted children suffer from the winter blasts in order that coal barons may roll in wealth. When Franklin B. Gowen, President of the Philadelphia and Reading Company, remonstrated against the combination and entered the lists as an advocate of free competition, the remaining members of the coal monopoly set about to crush him. They severed the bonds of union, glutted the market with coal, and reduced the price so as to make the production non-remunerative, and in the end Mr. Gowen's company became bankrupt, and he was cast out of its management. The free competition which was the result of this controversy, however, established the fact that anthracite coal can be mined, and landed at tide water, and be delivered to families at $3 or $3.50 a ton, and pay to the companies engaged in the traffic a remunerative profit on their investments. Not content, however, with a just and equitable return on the capital invested, the men who control this vast monopoly have advanced the price of coal for family consumption to over $5 a ton. Only last fall the Republican party in New Jersey selected as their standard-bearer Mr. Frederick A. Potts, the body, soul, and inspiration of the coal monopoly. He had been the moving spirit in organizing the unholy combination; he fixed the price of this commodity at every public sale, and within ten years, from a comparatively obscure clerkship, he has risen step by step, until he now counts his wealth by the millions—every dollar of which has been wrung from the sweat and blood of the toilers. The people of New Jersey saw and felt this, and Mr. Potts received a fitting rebuke at the polls. The lesson, however, had no apparent effect, for to-day this coal monopoly is more strongly intrenched than ever, and its impudent message to the perpetual complaints of the people is:

"Buy your coal at the prices we see fit to establish, or shiver in cold until death by freezing ends your sufferings."

The properties possessed by the coal monopoly represent an aggregate value of $100,000,000. By the free use of the watering process it has been placed on the market at the enormous capitalization of $250,000,000, and in order to meet the demands of speculation and to yield a return on an altogether unnatural and wonderfully expanded valuation, the consumer is taxed almost out of existence; and this system of base inequality in prices will go on until the people rise in their majesty and sweep from power the few who thus prey upon the dire necessities of the many.

The anthracite coal trade of the United States, all in the hands of this monopoly, is of marvelous proportions. It began in 1820 with an aggregate of 365 tons, and has steadily increased until it reached 23,437,243 tons in 1880. Since 1870 the annual output has been:

Year.	Tons.	Year.	Tons.
1870	15,552,380	1876	*18,906,000
1871	15,610,663	1877	*20,824,411
1872	20,747,149	1878	*17,306,911
1873	21,689,959	1879	26,142,689
1874	*19,805,074	1880	*23,437,243
1875	*20,643,509

* Production limited by the monopoly to create an artificial shrinkage.

The report of one of the Legislative committees, which investigated the coal combination of 1878, says:

During the receipt of these enormous profits many of the coal corporations, as was the case with railroads not engaged in the coal carrying trade, unable, under their charters, or for other reasons, to declare dividends upon their stock that would absorb their unexpended surplus, issued additional stock to the stockholders, for which they paid nothing; inaugurated what is commonly known as stock-watering, or a capitalization of surplus earnings, which is in substance exacting money from the people, creating an indebtedness representing the same, and making this the basis for forever asking the public to pay interest upon their own money so exacted.

THE MONOPOLY IN IRON AND STEEL.

A few years ago, when the people were clamoring for internal improvements, and an era of great national prosperity was about to dawn upon our country, appeals were made to Congress for aid to foster our young and struggling industries. The earth was beginning to yield, to the magic touch of labor, untold quantities of iron and precious metals, and all that was required to build up and maintain vast industries, it was argued, was suitable protection by the imposition of a prohibitory tariff against foreign competition. The railway system was in its infancy, capital was timid, and State and National aid was invoked, and, fearing that foreign competition, then strong as a giant, would rush in and strangle our infant industries, Congress abandoned the doctrines of Free Trade, under which we had grown and prospered, and yielded to the inexorable demands of the capitalists. The era of internal improvements had just begun to dawn, and as the iron horse pushed its way over mountains and across boundless prairies, the earth yielded up its metals, which an enterprising people hastened to develop. Under the stimulus of Congressional aid, blast furnaces were started, rolllng mills were set in motion, and American mechanics and artisans pushed bravely forward to compete with England in the manufacture of iron. Even earnest advocates of Free Trade waived their objections for the time, as with commendable pride they saw the products of our own soil entering into the construction of our lines of railway, which were spreading ont like a vast network over an entire continent ; but little did they dream that the men who so humbly craved tariff indulgence to stimulate their diligence would grow arrogant and purse-proud, or that, under the obnoxious name and character of monopolists, they would presume to dictate the future policy of the Government with an eye single to their own selfish aims and ends. The tariff on iron and steel did its work well, and in a few years the Government was a heavy loser in customs revenues on these items, which forced higher tariffs in other directions. Once this work of tariff tinkering was begun, it has gone on and on, until now it is notorious alone for glaring inconsistencies and ludicrous comparisons.

Surely we are no longer in swaddling clothes. Our days of dependent childhood are passed, and we have reached the period of ripe manhood. when we should be able to compete with the world. If we are not craven spirited we should delight to measure advantages with foreign nations, and to bid defiance to their manufactures. It is a ruinous policy to build a wall about this Republic that shuts our people out from the competing markets of the world, and thus declare that Americans shall not purchase where and when they can secure the most advantageous terms, but that they must submit to such outrageous exactions as soulless monopolists may see fit to impose. Now mark the sequel. The wise economy of Divine Providence so ordained the productions of nature that iron and coal should lie side by side, thus suggesting to the ingenuity of mankind the melting of the harder by the fires of the softer metal, and placing within easy reach all the appliances of national development. The capitalists, who thus had been given all and more than they asked, set at work, and in all portions of our land machinery was put in motion, labor was in demand, and one of the greatest industries of the age was in successful operation. Time passed, and the Bessemer process dawned, by which, with a proportionate admixture of specular and hematite ores, a steel rail could be produced, and combination began its deadly work. Eleven rolling mills were formed into a syndicate to control this process ; prices of the pig and manufactured metal were regulated by an association, and in order that the prolific production of nature might be checked, an unholy alliance was hatched, by which all except five rolling mills were to shut down. As a condition for checking the hum of industry, it was agreed that the companies going out of the business were to receive, as a sort of royalty recompense, $150,000 a month, to be distributed as a dividend among the stockholders. The five mills whose fires were banked turned out upon a cold world thousands of workmen, not because there was a shortage of supply ; not because there was a lack of profit in manufacture ; not because the rapidly extending railway system was supplied with all the material it required. On the contrary, the fruits of peace, after a long and enervating struggle, were about to be garnered, and the once desolated South was just beginning to feel the impulse of reviving industry. Her railroads needed relaying, and her rolling stock must be replenished, and hence this extraordinary conduct on the part of a greedy monopoly. We were then floating along on a tide of unparalleled prosperity, and everything argued strongly for a long and undisturbed period of inflation. Pig iron was advanced by this monopoly from $22 to $45 a ton and steel rails in proportion. The proprietors waxed wealthy, but their laborers, who turned the ore from its long-hidden beds, and worked it over into strong and desirable rails, wheels and axles, received no benefit from this marvelous boom. This combination included such concerns as the Vulcan Iron Works of St. Louis, the Joliet Iron Works of Illinois, the Bethlehem Mills of Pennsylvania, works at Scranton, Pittsburg and Trenton, and included among other well-known capitalists, L. P. Chouteau and D. K. Ferguson of St. Louis and Edward Cooper and Abram S. Hewitt of New York, all of whom added greatly to their already large private fortunes. Murmurs began to fill the workshop, the mines and the rolling mills, and the toilers naturally remonstrated against a cruel policy that would permit employers to grow richer while they were becoming poorer. The monopolists, not content with the success which attended their combination, turned a deaf ear to the complaints of their employes, and pushed on with their unrighteous schemes, until a reaction was reached, and a panic such as the world has seldom seen was forced upon the country. The smoke no longer curled from the towering chimneys, the busy hum of industry ceased, and in their stead were seen many thousands of idle people gathering in cities and villages clamoring for bread. Monopoly received a severe rebuke then, and it was also attacked in a vital point when our great channels of inland commerce were closed up by a railroad strike, eventuating in riot, pillage, arson and murder. While deprecating a resort to acts of violence, we cannot deny the glaring fact that the monopolists alone were responsible for this relapse into a period of anarchy. The sad lessons of these terrible hours of solicitude were not heeded. The long years of depression which paralyzed our country and turned the balance of trade against us scotched but did not kill the slimy serpent of Monopoly, and now that prosperity beams upon us in regal splendor, whole nests of these poisonous reptiles have been bred, and their venom is being injected into every branch of National, State and Municipal Government. To successfully combat this great evil, there must be less legislation for the employer and more for the people; less for the capitalist and more for the consumer. We must ever bear in mind that the most important element in our midst is the vast army of bread-winners, and, turning the tables, we should teach those who hold the purse-strings and employ most of their time in cutting coupons that the men who earn their bread by the sweat of their brow have bodies to be preserved, and families to maintain, by their labor alone, and that, being largely in the majority, their wishes are paramount to those of the favored few who mass their combined capital and declare that wealth is power. Cotton has long since been dethroned. Gold is not supreme, and honest and well-directed labor is King.

No sooner did workmen cease from labor, in the enforcement of a demand for a larger share in the product of their industry, than the monopolists who employed them sought to manufacture sympathy by charging communism. The American mechanic and laborer have no sympathy whatever with this hideous outgrowth of European politics, and they certainly have as much right peaceably to enforce a demand for higher wages by a cessation of work, as the manufacturer has to limit the product at the expense of the working classes. The terrible fruits of the commune, or of nihilism, never can secure growth upon the free soil of America, and our toilers merely demand that when, in seasons of depression, they cheerfully submit to a reduction in the price of labor, capital, in a just and equitable spirit, shall restore the schedule of wages when the storm is over and prosperity dawns. Capital, it is true, supports labor; but it is equally as certain that only by the sturdy blows of labor can capital be created. These two great interests should never clash, but, recognizing the importance of each as a great factor, they should work harmoniously together in the development of a higher civilization.

The Edgemoor Iron Works has been able to check the progress of the Brooklyn and New York bridge by taking its own time in completing a contract made when the raw material was lower than at present, and a much-needed enterprise, in which over $13,000,000 of the people's money is invested, is left dangling in mid-air because a monster monopoly, with the sanction of negligent trustees, willfully withholds the steel necessary to complete the roadway.

THE TELEGRAPH MONOPOLY.

The history of the Western Union Telegraph Company, in a striking degree, furnishes the worst possible phases of the power of monopoly. An institution of common utility, originally intended to harness the forces of electricity for the common advantage of mankind, it has been prostituted to the personal aims of a few monopolistic autocrats, until it has assumed the proportions of a vast engine of oppression. Like a venomous anaconda, it has thrown its deadly coil about every rival organization, and at a fitting time it has enveloped them within its capacious folds, until to-day it controls hundreds of thousands of miles of wire, covering the area, not only of a continent, but, stretching its submerged cables beneath the ocean, it dictates the price of messages to all parts of the habitable globe. It has swallowed, in startling succession, the United States, Franklin, Bankers and Brokers', Atlantic and Pacific, Pacific and Atlantic, Automatic, Southern and Atlantic, Gold and Stock, all the Telephone Companies, and half a dozen other rival concerns, for fear that the public should enjoy cheap telegraphy and reduce its huge dividends and profits to normal proportions. No longer is it employed for public utility, the wants and necessities of the financial, commercial and social world being held subservient to the caprice and for the sole personal benefit of Jay Gould, the Napoleon of Monopoly. Starting many years ago in humble quarters in the old Post building in Hanover square, it became a supplicant for patronage. Labor and materials were then at their highest; the invention of the Morse system was new, and the knowledge of the science of telegraphy was limited, and yet $385,700 was all its capital. Eight years later it was expanded to $22,000,000, of which $3,322,000 was for the purchase of competing lines, and of which nearly $18,000,000 was issued in stock dividends. The public speedily saw the advantages to be gained by the rapid transmission of messages, and, from the very start, a generous public patronage was bestowed. It has always possessed vast power, and has been turned into a political Republican machine. It is the custodian of the secrets of business men, and, during political campaigns, each message that is sent over its network of wires is known to the managers of the company, and too frequently is taken undue advantage of.

This was conspicuously apparent during the Presidential campaign of 1876, when the dispatches sent by Democrats were taken advantage of, while those sent by its opponents were destroyed. The late William Orton, while acting as President of the Western Union Telegraph Company, observed closely the persistent efforts of Jay Gould to secure control, and, knowing how dangerous were his methods, he circumvented him. Gould had established a formidable rival in the Atlantic and Pacific Company. It grew and expanded until its wires began to reach all leading points hitherto monopolized by Western Union, when, by forming an alliance with William H. Vanderbilt, a pooling of earnings was agreed upon. Mr. Orton, as a measure of self-defense, secured a controlling majority of the Atlantic and Pacific stock, which was locked up in the vaults of Western Union, and, confident that the last hated rival was killed off, rates were arbitrarily advanced. Gould, it is true, by this act of treachery to the public, in selling out the Atlantic and Pacific Company, added several millions of dollars to his already great wealth; but his ambitious hopes were not yet realized, for he could not secure a seat in the directory. Mr. Orton died, and Gould, regarding it as lightly as he had the violent decease of many of his victims who sought refuge from his relentless persecution with the pistol or beneath the river, set about to capture the telegraph system of the country. He expended about $10,000,000 in the construction of the American Union Company, and, upon a sacred pledge that his only desire was to reduce the cost of telegraphy to a minimum, he secured subscriptions to his stock and the work went on. All this time he was proving his promises as false as dicers' oaths, for he placed the entire work in a secretly organized Construction Company, dividing the excess of charges over actual constructive outlay among a favored few, and leaving the bulk of subscribers to the fate of a fluctuating stock market. When this new enterprise, of which so much was hoped, was launched, strange to say, there was only a slight reduction in tariffs, and these only to St. Louis, Chicago, Cincinnati, Boston, Philadelphia, Washington, and a few other cities. It then began to dawn upon the public mind that Gould, true to his depraved instincts, had basely betrayed the public into supporting his new enterprise that he might employ it in his second attack upon Western Union.

At that time the latter company had a capitalization of $40,000,000, two-thirds of which was fictitious, with valuable plants and an exclusive monopoly of patents that enabled it to perform the entire telegraphic service of the country with profit at a greatly reduced tariff; but as long as a rival remained in the field under the guidance and control of an unscrupulous man like Gould, there was danger that rates might be reduced. This was Gould's opportunity, and he lost no time in taking advantage of it. William H. Vanderbilt owned or controlled the majority of the stock, and upon him Gould brought to bear all his blandishments. The man that Commodore Vanderbilt despised and denounced was received with open arms by his son in the latter's parlor on Fifth avenue, and there these two monopoly kings planned the scandalous deal which placed in the hands of Gould the electric forces of the world.

CREATING A MONSTER MONOPOLY.

The height of his ambition reached, the telegraph lines of the country consolidated under one system, Jay Gould still had it in his power to have sponged out his past unsavory record by becoming the champion of cheap telegraphy; but, true to his traditional hatred of the common people from whose loins he sprang, he started on an entirely different career. His first step was to close up all rival offices in the land, and, by a division of the surplus stock in the treasury of Western Union, he added to its already excessive capitalization, making its total $80,000,000, while competent judges estimate that the cost of the entire property has not been more than $20,000,000, and of this not more than half has ever been paid in by stock and bond holders, but has been contributed by the public in the shape of surplus earnings, or, in other words, excessive charges. When the capital was $40,000,000 the stock was selling in open market at 77, and yet, with a double capital over which the same earnings are to be distributed, it has been pushed up as high as 127, but is now quoted at 87. Its service has degenerated, and yet there is no remedy, the invariable response when complaint is made being: "Business so crowds upon us that it is unavoidable." The addition of the last $17,000,000 in watered stock was not a public benefit, and it was only made legal by a stretch of the law under the careful manipulation of shrewd lawyers. Had honesty prevailed, and had honest dividends been declared upon honest capital, opposition companies could not have been successfully launched.

Gould's next step was to secure control of what is possibly the worst monopoly in existence, the Western Union's Associated Press franchise. It is such a close corporation that its local associations have the power on a single adverse vote to exclude any new applicant from the use of its dispatches. Seven daily papers comprise this corporation in this city, four of which Gould made persistent efforts to purchase, in order that he might dictate and color, to suit his stock-jobbing operations, the very news of the day that is flashed across the wires. It is openly charged and has never been contradicted, that this man even now suppresses and manufactures dispatches through this agency to foster his stock-gambling operations and delude the public into being fleeced by his horde of paid brokers and agents. It was this same Western Union monopoly that during the last hours of the late President issued the insolent and degrading order that "hereafter all bulletins from the sick room must be paid for to secure transmission," thus seeking to make money out of a National sorrow.

The remedy against telegraph abuses is well set forth in the words of the venerable Peter Cooper, who says:

"The telegraphs should belong to the people and be made a part of the postal system, like those of England, and messages be sent at as low rates as will barely cover expenses."

Secretary Windom, the only United States senator in the Republican party who had the courage to express his convictions, in referring to the colossal monopoly, says:

"One man, who controls more miles of railroad than any other in the world, and who is almost daily adding new lines to his colossal combination, now also controls the telegraphic system of the United States and Canada, and is reaching under the sea to grasp that of Europe. Not content with all this, and determined that no instrument of commercial and political power shall elude his grasp, he is also the owner of three out of the seven newspapers which constitute the Associated Press, through the agency of which the news is distributed over the entire country. He may at any time secure the fourth paper, which will give him absolute control over the news which the people shall receive.

* * * * * *

"It will be far better for the corporations themselves that the remedy be applied now, by conservative but thorough and judicious legislation, rather than to postpone it until the people, no longer able to bear the tyranny of corporate power, shall rise in their wrath to humble and destroy their oppressors."

MONOPOLY IN BREADSTUFFS AND MEDICINES.

"The same condition of things exists in breadstuffs, and even the great staff of life is made a mere plaything of selfish speculators on the Produce Exchange. When men like James R. Keene are crushed between the upper and nether millstones of Wall street operators, they rush to the Produce Exchange and, by making corners in wheat, flour and provisions, seek to retrieve their failing fortunes. Mr. Keene, Armour & Co. of New York and Chicago, David Dows & Co., and their associates, have repeatedly locked up all available breadstuffs for no other purpose than to create an artificial stringency and advance the price, compelling the consuming classes to pay exorbitant prices for the bread which nourishes and sustains life. Even opium, which forms the basis of laudanum, paregoric and other needed medical compounds, and which, from the very nature of its production and excessive customs duties, is costly, has been made the subject of a "corner." A few Wall street speculators formed a syndicate to control the imports, and the price was advanced from $2.50 to $6 per pound, compelling the inhabitants of tenements to pay the full price of a day's living to secure enough medicine for the child that was dying for need of medical treatment. A solitary firm in this city now controls the importation of this product, with branch houses in England, France, Turkey and China.

Quinine, an absolute necessity in the treatment of malaria, which abounds largely in most portions of the country, is to-day under the absolute control of three companies, which enjoy a monopoly of its manufacture. They import all the bark, and in their expensive and strictly guarded factories they distil the health-giving and malaria-destroying liquid, fixing the price to suit their will, and, no matter how extravagant the charge or enormous the profit, the public have only one alternative—to buy at the figures demanded by the monopoly or shake in silence.

The men who control the vast trade in quinine and who hold heavy liens upon the poppies from which opium is extracted, not content with natural profits, have knocked persistently at the doors of Congress until that body has added to the dutiable list an onerous tax, which utterly precludes smaller dealers at home from importing the drug. Thus monopolists have been enabled, by the aid of auxiliaries in the National Legislature, to build a Chinese wall of exclusiveness around their traffic, closing up every avenue of competition, and receiving a license to make a corner in articles which minister to bodily ailments.

The Trunk Lines and their feeders, embraced in both the Eastern and Western pools, and including the Jersey roads, have created a monopoly of the handling of live stock by a system of rebates, commissions, and eveners, which is an act of discrimination against the general shipper. Mr. Vanderbilt testified that on one occasion that his road carried 1,000 car-loads from Chicago to New York at $1 a car, on which the road only received thirty cents, the balance being eaten up by a ring of meat monopolists, whose profits came direct from the pockets of the vast army of consumers. Under the present rule each shipper is his own "evener;" i. e., if he ships by a certain road, as ordered by the Pool Commissioner, he secures a rebate; but if he prefers and resorts to some other route, he is charged $10 per car higher, as a punishment for daring to disobey the railroad monopolists. In New Jersey it is said that no less a person than United States Senator McPherson enjoys a monopoly of handling the live stock traffic of that State. A proper unit of shipment should be fixed, and middlemen be driven out of the transportation business.

THE SUGAR MONOPOLY.

Sugar, which enters into daily consumption, and is one of the necessaries of the poor man's table, is controlled by a ring of refiners, who regulate its product upon a system borrowed from the coal combination. They have arranged the tariff so as to prevent the importation of high grade sugars, and maintain prices at such a high point that it induces adulteration with corn sugar after it is refined, thereby reducing the saccharine strength and cheating the consumer. In order to keep up prices this monopoly has at times reduced the hours of labor, thus partially throwing out of employment many thousand workmen, who are actually compelled to suffer a reduction of wages in order that they shall pay an increased price for the very sugar they assist in manufacturing. The men controlling this monopoly have been able for years to stifle the protests of merchants, importers and commercial bodies, and National legislation has been so manipulated by them as to almost give National sanction to their corrupt and health-destroying prac-tices.

THE NATIONAL BANK MONOPOLY.

This greed for power has extended to the national banks, and we have seen extraordinary favors accorded to a fortunate few, by which hundreds of millions of Government bonds have passed through their hands at a profit of many millions of dollars. John Sherman, while acting as Secretary of the Treasury, was intrusted with refunding the National Debt. Instead of appealing direct to the people who held the bonds for investment, and who took them when the Government was in the throes of a mighty rebellion and needed immediate aid, he entered into a secret alliance with what was known as the First National Bank Syndicate, and through this channel he carried on the monumental fraud of the century. This syndicate of millionaires, under the lead of the graduates from the bankrupt firm of Jay Cooke & Co., purchased in one batch $120,000,000 of 4 per cent. bonds at a fraction below par, with a commission added, and were given nearly a year in which to make a fina lsettlement. The bonds were all delivered, and for many months, while in default to the Government on purchase-money, they were not only speculating with them in the open market, but were permitted to draw the quarterly interest on the coupons.

Agencies were opened in Europe, and the people, who had an abiding faith in the financial credit of the Government, were precluded from purchasing these bonds, except at such a price as John Sherman's Syndicate, from time to time, saw fit to exact. The premium on over $200,000,000 of bonds handled by this syndicate was steadily advanced until it reached 118 here and 120 at London, and at its termination a profit of over $5,000,000 was divided among its members. It was often charged, and never satisfactorily denied, that Mr. Sherman drew a large profit from these transactions. While this charge may not be true, it is certain that Mr. Sherman, who entered office at Washington a poor man, and whose salary at no time has been greater than $8,000 a year, is now a millionaire. He owns a row of magnificent buildings in Washington, besides other valuable properties, the result of fifteen years' service in office at an average salary of $6,000 a year.

James Harlan retired from the pulpit in Iowa and became United States Senator from that State. He served four years, and received in compensation during that time $20,000; and yet, when he returned to Iowa, he blossomed into a millionaire.

James G. Blaine, when he entered the public service, was also a poor man. During most of the time his salary was $5,000 a year; but, by the same marvelous system of mathematics, with which only known corporation advocates are familiar, he now rolls in wealth. Quite recently Colonel Frederick A. Conkling openly and publicly charged at a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce in this city that a member of the sugar monopoly gave his check for $100,000 to a member of the Ways and Means Committee of the late House of Representatives to prevent adverse tariff legislation. All this shows the vast controlling power the Monopolies exert over our National Legislature and how unscrupulous they are in their methods.

THE RAILROAD MONOPOLY.

Every Monopoly which has been discussed, it is seen, draws its inspiration and receives its sustenance from the great railroad corporations of the land. They have been more open in their antagonism to the interests of the people, more barefaced in their efforts to debauch National, State and Municipal legislation, and more venal and corrupt in their general operations. If these powerful corporations had been harassed by oppressive enactments, or if they had obtained their charters under severe and exacting restrictions, there might be a reasonable cause for their action; but when we consider what liberal charters they possess, the enormous land grants they have acquired, and the extraordinary privileges accorded to them, we are amazed at the baseness of their ingratitude and the startling effrontery of their demands. The Pacific railroads, now virtually under the control of one man, received their charters from Congress in the days when the public domain was regarded as the personal property of Congressmen and Senators, and, falling into the hands of the corrupt lobby of the railroads, they gave it away, in the form of subsidies, regardless of its extent or value. The vast amount of land absolutely plundered from the Government by corrupting her national legislators is something appalling. The Central and Western Pacific road, controlled by C. P. Huntington, received a land grant between Ogden and Sacramento City of 12,000,000 acres, worth, at the company's own valuation, $30,000,000; the Union and Kansas Pacific road, Jay Gould's property, were given 24,046,716 acres of land in the area of country from Omaha to Ogden, valued, according to recent sales, at $60,000,000. The Northern Pacific road, now under the control of Henry Villard, the author of what is known as "The Blind Pool," controls 47,000,000 acres of land in alternate sections, held by the company at $2 an acre, or a total valuation of $98,000,000. The Southern Pacific was given a right of way 200 feet wide through the public lands, and twenty alternate sections for each mile of road completed, equipped, and accepted. These grants cover 3,000,000 acres, valued at $6,000,000. The Texas Pacific Railway, now owned by Jay Gould, owns 13,400,000 acres, valued at $40,000,000; the Atlantic and Pacific Railroad, 42,000,000 acres, valued at $69,000,000, and numerous other roads received grants reaching the stupendous aggregate of 296,000,000 acres, of a total square mileage of 294,758, at a total valuation of $736,895,000. In this vast squandering of the public domain by Republican legislation, 175,835,405 acres are not reserved for settlers. The manner in which these lands have been and are being disposed of is exceedingly objectionable. Instead of being offered freely to settlers at reasonable rates, sections which have been made very valuable by the railroad improvements are held by the company for speculation, and only such sections as are not available and require an outlay to be made productive are in the open market. The granting of such immense tracks of land to corporations or individuals has created a landed oligarchy, whose operations are destructive of the best interests of a free government.

"The land, by Divine inheritance, says Peter Cooper, the venerable philanthropist, "belongs to the people, and, as a rule, should be occupied and owned by those who cultivate it. The public lands should be reserved for actual settlers, and given in limited quantities to those only who desire to build homesteads. Land Monopoly should be prohibited by a graduated land tax."

THE MONOPOLY IN LANDS.

Since these land grants were awarded to corporations under the mistaken notion of giving an impetus to internal improvements, there has been a steady growth upon this soil of the doctrine prevailing in Europe—that the land should be held in the name of a few—thus tending to create a land aristocracy with power and authority to oppress the poor and make them entirely subservient to their will. Thousands of miles of territory, which should be divided up among small farmers who would be enabled to add to the general wealth of the country, are now owned by one individual, and for generations this land will descend to heirs and not become of service to the grand army of settlers who are seeking homes in the far West, assimilating to the feudal system of Europe, which has acted so disastrously to the interests of labor, and sapping the life-blood of the people. It is to escape just such an inequality in the distribution of the soil that hundreds of thousands of Germans, Irish and Scotch and natives of all foreign countries flock to our shores, in the hope that, by thrift, industry an ! sobriety, they may some day own the land that they till and the humble home that affords them shelter. This pernicious system of land tenure has made Ireland a race of discontented, landlord-ridden people, and to-day the usually submissive Scotch and English are restive, and demand that the lands be more justly distributed, so that their children, at least, may escape from the serfdom of land-tenure rule.

It is high time that our Government should move in the direction of land reform ; for unless the growth of the present age is checked, we shall have in America a landed aristocracy that cannot be dislodged. No man should be allowed to own 10,000 acres of land, passing from family to family as long as the common law of inheritance will permit, to be leased out to the toiler, who can never hope to acquire any benefit from occupancy, and who is useful only as he improves the soil and makes it more remunerative. This is a matter that calls for immediate legislative action by Congress.

THE GOVERNMENT ROBBED OF ONE HUNDRED MILLION DOLLARS.

In addition to the enormous grants of the public domain, Congress pledged the credit of the United States Government to the Pacific roads to a total of $64,623,512, the condition of affairs being :

Principal outstanding, $64,623,512 ; interest accrued and unpaid, $1,938,705.36 ; interest paid by the United States, $45,651,155.94. The credit side of the balance-sheet makes the following meagre showing : Interest repaid by companies by transportation service, $13,615,292.55 ; by cash payments on 5 per cent. net earning : Central Pacific, $684,271.96 ; Central Branch Union Pacific, $6,926.91, or a total of only $655,198.87, leaving $31,380,664.52 to be paid in interest account by the United States. When these Government bonds were issued they were declared a first lien upon the roads, and the grant was made upon the express condition that they should be paid at maturity, and all compensation for services rendered to the Government was to be applied to pay the interest on the bonds, and 5 per cent. of the yearly earnings of the roads was to be reserved and applied to the payment of the principal of the bonds. In 1864 a bill was pushed through Congress which doubled the land grants, abandoned the Government security by changing it to a second mortgage, and provided that only one-half of the earnings from Government freights should be applied to pay the interest upon Government bonds. By this act the Union Pacific Company was allowed to issue a new first mortgage equal to the amount granted by the Government, and this was done at a time when less than twenty miles of road was in running order, although a claim was set that $2,000,000 of stock was subscribed, $200,000 paid in, and $800,000 had been expended. Thus at one sweep the Government relinquished its lien on a loan of $100,000,000, and subordinated it to the liens of all the companies created for building the roads. As Congressman Washburne, of Illinois, said at the time :

"Sir, on my responsibility as a Representative, I pronounce this as the most monstrous and flagrant attempt to overreach the Government and the people that can be found in all the legislative annals of the country. * * * I warn the true friends of the roads, I warn Congress and the people, what will be the result. The real state of the case seems to be that the Executive Committee is the Board of Directors, and ONE MAN is the Executive Committee."

The warning was unheeded ; a corrupt Congress passed the bill, and a steal of a hundred million dollars was legalized. These wards of the Government have become so strong and rebellious that now they propose to wipe out the Government lien entire, and they have sought the aid of the courts to aid them in their act of highway robbery. From the hour they received the most liberal charters, subsidies, and land grants ever known, they have sought to destroy the lien of the Government, to defraud it out of its interest and rob it on transportation account. The construction of the Union Pacific, which actually cost $42,825,328.34, was charged up to $93,546,287.28, leaving a net profit of over $40,000,000 to a set of thieving projectors. The Government recently instituted proceedings against the Central Pacific road to recover just dues which had been persistently evaded, and which reached the enormous sum of $4,000,000. The President, Mr. Huntington, gave bond and took an appeal to the United States Supreme Court, impudently claiming that the transfer of the Government lien had subordinated it, and in other ways seeking to evade the payment of a single dollar. Jay Gould contrived to have one of his paid attorneys placed upon the Supreme Court Bench, and he has openly boasted that no adverse decision can be reached in that body. It is becoming a grave question whether the Government is not amply justified in taking steps to have these Pacific Railroad charters canceled, the present managers stripped of authority, and the entire system placed under direct Government control. Railroad monopolists must be taught that they have not yet reached that point where they can boastfully exclaim : "We are stronger than the Government."

VANDERBILT'S COOL ASSURANCE.

This, however, is only one of the grievances of which the people justly complain. In this State alone we have two of the four great trunk lines of railway which control the traffic of the country. When the proposition was first mooted to construct a railway, the State cheerfully gave its support, and it grew and expanded under the fostering caré of the State, until now our own territory is gridironed with nearly 7,000 miles of rails, while in the United States there are over 100,000 miles of railway. At first restrictions were imposed to prevent the New York Central road from carrying freight in opposition to the canal, and in 1855 a law was passed creating a Board of Railroad Commissioners. This was found an inconvenient interference with railroad plans, and so the roads paid the Commissioners the full amount of their salaries for the term for which they were created ($25,000) to silence their opposition, and then procured the repeal of the law in 1857, creating the Commission.

The State of New York has contributed, in aid of railroads, the munificent sum of $8,000,000, and various counties and municipalities have given over $30,000,000 more. When asked what he considered the relation of railroads to the people, Mr. Vanderbilt coolly replied :

The railway corporation is organized primarily for the benefit of the people of the State, and the pecuniary consideration is secondary, but necessary, to induce the citizens of the State to assume the performance of the duty of the State."

In other words, this railroad monopolist says : "We own the railroads, control the Legislatures, Boards of Freeholders and City Councils, and what are you going to do about it?"

The New York Central road, in various ways, has not only violated all laws of trade, but it has repeatedly set the laws of the State at defiance, always depending upon its paid attorneys in the Legislature to protect it from harm. In 1853 ten roads were consolidated under the management of the New York Central, adding to the stock and bonded debt of the parent organization $23,085,600. The division of stock in the various lines was graded, so that in the end nearly $9,000,000 of watered or fictitious capital was added to the road. In 1868–9 when the consolidation of the New York Central and Hudson River roads was effected, $44,000,000 additional watered stock was added, and later on Mr. Vanderbilt marketed 60,000 shares to a syndicate, at $120 a share. The increase of the stock and debts of this road since 1854 has been as follows :

1854	$46,778,863	1870	$103,110,137
1860	51,502,601	1877	129,229,533
1866	54,087,235	1880	129,161,633

How this increase was brought about in the face of the law is told by Mr. Worcester, Secretary of the road, before the Hepburn Committee. He says :

The New York Central didn't double its stock or affect its stock ; it couldn't ; it was not authorized to ; the Hudson River never doubled its stock—it was not authorized to ; the Consolidation Act authorized railroads to consolidate and form a new company ; the new company was authorized to fix its capital stock ; the capital stock of the New York Central and Hudson River Company—the new company—was made a certain amount ; and that amount was about twice the original capital of the New York Central and Hudson River Railroad alone. It was very nearly double the amount of the combination of those two capitals.

According to this very showing, $53,507,060 has been wrongfully added to the capital of these roads in the interest of monopoly.

THE GOULD-FISK REGIME.

The financial history of the Erie Road is an old, old story. It is capitalized at $150,000,000, and, according to competent expert testimony, the road and equipment could be replaced for $45,000,000, while $25,000,000 more will cover the additional valuation as represented by stocks, bonds, and interest in other corporations. It is estimated in round numbers that $70,000,000 of the capitalization represents water or fictitious value. The great injury to this great trunk line is due to its management under the Gould-Fisk regime. Reckless in the use of money, conscienceless in their methods of corruption, they rely solely upon the power of wealth to corrupt the judiciary, debauch the Legislature, and purchase friendly assistance everywhere. Gould employed the late William M. Tweed, and with him such unscrupulous lobbyists as Barber, and through them he was enabled to carry on his railroad war with the late Commodore Vanderbilt. Judges of the Supreme Court were waked from their slumbers at the midnight hour, and, at the behest of this railroad monopolist, they signed ex parte orders, holding court in a state of dishabille in their dimly-lighted bed-chambers. Gould and Fisk, acting solely under the advice of the former, inaugurated and carried on with a high hand the most open and notorious schemes of debauchery and crime the present age has ever recorded. Here Mr. Gould obtained his start in life, and his share of profit in the disreputable practices was between $3,000,000 and $5,000,000. To-day his colossal fortune is estimated as high as $75,000,000, all except $2,000,000 being invested in stocks and bonds of monopolies. In his famous testimony, given in 1873, he furnished the keystone of his prosperity, which is summed up in the single word, unscrupulousness. When asked if the Erie Road, under his management, interfered in politics, he answered, with a supercilious smile :

"Certainly we do. If a friend is running for the Legislature or Judiciary, we help him both with railroad votes and money."

"Do you consider that this cancels all obligations ?"

"Well, not always. My experience is that it is cheaper to buy a man after he is elected than before."

"What is your politics, Mr. Gould ?" was asked, and the famous answer was made in his most flippant style :

"In a Republican district I am a Republican ; in a Democratic district a Democrat ; in a doubtful district, doubtful ; but I am always an Erie man."

This was in keeping with his evidence before the United States Court. When asked how much he drew his check for in the great telegraph consolidation, his nonchalant reply was :

"Well, it was either $5,000,000 or $10,000,000 ; I don't exactly remember which."

The record of his financial management of this road within seven years may by summarized thus :

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad pays no taxes whatever in the State of Maryland, and it is managed and controlled by J. W. and R. W. Garrett, father and son, as blooming a pair of heartless monopolists as ever polluted the air of a free Government. They belong to the same railroad pool with Vanderbilt and Jewett, and their chief object is to divert commerce and trade from New York to Baltimore.

The Pennsylvania Railroad was sold by the State to the company in 1857, for $7,500,000, and to-day its aggregate bonded and stock indebtedness is nearer $100,000,000. Like all the trunk lines, it is interested in the fast express companies, the Standard Oil Company, and the sleeping-car privileges, thus creating a formidable combination of monopolistic power that will absorb all the rights of the people, unless they assert and insist upon their rights at once, and with a determination that will brook no opposition.

THE CANALS IN DANGER.

Care must be exercised to hold the railroad corporations in check, or our great canals will be destroyed or rendered utterly useless for the purposes of inland commerce. New York possesses national advantages of a superior character. She has the Erie Canal, which furnishes cheap transportation for grain and other cereals between the seaboard and the lakes. It was this canal which first tapped the storehouse of the West and gave New York its impetus, and when the railroad made its first appearance rivalry made little difference, as both were factors in attracting commerce to our doors. When the Pennsylvania and Baltimore and Ohio roads were started and reached Chicago, then began a rivalry for trade which threatened to destroy the canals altogether, or to absorb them into the railroad system. A child of the State, we could not permit this only check upon the rapacity of railroad corporations to be ruined, and, by a constitutional amendment, the State assumed complete control. The railroads, however, defeated in their attempts to crush out this wholesome protection that nature's highway of commerce—the great lakes, the Erie Canal, and the Hudson river – afford the public, have sought by secretly arranged tariffs to bankrupt all engaged in the traffic. They have lowered their schedules to a nominal rate of twenty cents a hundred-weight between New York and Chicago in summer, but, in reality, making grain contracts as low as ten cents. But when the frosts of winter close up these avenues of dangerous competition, they again advance to thirty or forty cents and chuckle over their high-handed proceeding. To them, in their war against the rights of the people, all seasons are alike; the war goes on, and in the end commerce is made to pay tribute to the railway monopolists. Only last winter a most persistent effort was made to utterly destroy the Erie canal by building along its banks a narrow gauge railway, known as the Berme scheme. This measure, calculated to wipe out the canal as a great commercial factor by carrying freight at reduced rates and with greatly increased speed over the monotonous and slower methods of the towpath, received a powerful support of both lobby and membership at Albany, and in reality secured its deathblow from the persistent assaults of the Democratic press.

With the introduction of the more modern methods of propulsion and with free tolls, the producer will be able to have his grain transported to market by the water lines at a reasonable price; but let our canal system pass away as another concession to the railway corporations, and all inland competition would cease and the great waterways planted by a beneficent Providence for the benefit of mankind would become mere pleasure grounds, while the railroads would be enabled to tax the industries and productions of the country, at all seasons of the year, more than they could bear.

We insist, therefore, that a liberal and enlightened policy shall be adopted by the people of the State toward the canals; that they must remain forever the property of the State, and in order that they may never drift into the hands of a monoply, but stand as a mighty bulwark of protection against every form of monopoly and corporate oppression, we insist that they shall be made absolutely free to all who wish to send their merchandise by water.

THE DUTY OF CONGRESS.

Remedies for the evils just enumerated are in the hands of our legislatures, State and national. It should be distinctly understood that we make no war upon railroad or other corporations as such. They are necessary adjuncts to civilization, and they have largely contributed to the internal improvements of our common country. As long as they keep within the bounds of law, reason, and justice, the people will protect and aid them; but when they seek to be masters and use these most beneficent inventions as a machinery to tax the people; when they become mere breeders of selfish millionaires, who buy up newspapers and originate corners in light, fuel, wheat, corn, cotton, and medicines, and make vast consolidations of railway and telegraph lines, the political party that fails to sound the alarm is recreant to the trusts imposed in it.

The remedy for these great evils rests in the hands of the people, of the Legislature and Congress. The first and all-important duty is the exercise of great caution in the selection of candidates for Congress and the Legislature, and only those should be chosen who can safely be trusted to resist the blandishments or open corruption of the agents and allies of monopolies. They should be men who will zealously guard the rights and privileges of the people and resist with all the power they possess the further progress of corporations in their efforts to become great engines to accomplish unequal taxation and arbitrarily redistribute the wealth of the land. While according to corporations their just rights, your legislators must demand the amplest protection against the abuses and unlawful aggressions of corporate power. They must realize that, while we have truth and justice on our side we have a wily and dangerous foe to contend against, and one that will scruple at no expedient to retain its tremendous power. Congress should pass at an early day an Inter-State Commerce bill; if not the one known as the Reagan measure, some other bill embodying its ideas and holding corporations in check, teaching them that they are servants and not masters of the people. Railroad charges should be made reasonable, based on the cost of the service, and not on what exactions the people will submit to. Competition must be fostered, not crushed out, as Mr. Vanderbilt is trying to do, in order that the public may be now forced for all the future to pay dividends upon the enormous mass of watered stock. Railroad tariffs must be equal and uniform; not one rate for the heavy shipper to competing distances and a higher rate to local points, thereby destroying the business interests of the people and favoring the special few to whom they are obligated by legislation or judicial favor.

There should be a National as well as State Board of Railroad Commissioners, to hear the complaints of citizens, with ample authority to examine persons and papers, to investigate abuses, remedy defects in roadbeds, bridges or management, to publish the result and to call upon the law officers of the United States to prosecute where it is needed.

A postal telegraph should be established, with stations in every post office or at other commercial points, and, if need be, the Government should assume control of all the wires now in use, submitting the question of the value of the property now owned by the telegraph monopoly to skillful and discreet experts. Payment for this property should be based on the actual cost of construction, a fair remuneration for the good-will, and an equitable allowance for franchises; but under no circumstances must any allowance be made on account of the fictitious capital which has been watered in the proportion, it is estimated, of four dollars to one. In all future construction of railroads or telegraphs, construction companies should be prohibited.

RAILROAD COMMISSIONERS NECESSARY.

The State Legislature should pass, at an early date, a bill to create a Board of Railroad Commissioners, to regulate the transportation of freight, and to recommend such general laws governing the relations of railroads to the public as will do justice alike to the public and the railroad interests. Boards of Railroad Commissioners exist in Massachusetts, Missouri. Iowa, Georgia, Alabama and many other States, and those familiar with their operation declare that they are fruitful of good results. Commissioners should be clothed with sufficient authority to compel an enforcement of their decrees. They should be men of the highest integrity, and their compensation should be sufficient to place them above the petty bribes of free passes or the more formidable weapons of large offers of money. Mr. Vanderbilt has issued his ultimatum in the impudent declaration that "The Commission must either own the railroads or the railroads own it." This presumes that no public officials can be selected whose honor and integrity will be sufficient to guard them from those venal practices in which corporations are adepts. Mr. Vanderbilt, in his open act of hostility, voices the opinion of his associates in railroad management, and proves the absolute necessity of State control over a system which it created and has ample power to regulate. In summing up the qualifications of such a Commission, the Hepburn Committee of Investigation well said:

"With a Commission thus constituted, composed of men of recognized ability and unquestioned integrity, who should devote to this vast question their especial consideration and entire attention, it seems to us it would be alike profitable to the public and to the railroads. By means of their powers they could bring railroad management into the scrutiny of the public, and subject it to the influence of that most powerful of all motors for the correction of evil—public opinion. This will afford to the public a tribunal to whom they can appeal for a redress of grievances, easily and without expense; whereas, now the only redress is to be had in a legal controversy with a powerful corporate interest."

Our election and bribery laws should be so amended as to increase the chances for detecting corruption. Recent events have shown how money was lavished on a Senatorial campaign, resulting in the indictment of one of our State Senators, and the prosecuting authorities of the County of Albany were unable to bring him to trial on account of their inability to find and subpœna the Speaker of the House, the most important witness in the case; but this sinks into insignificance when compared with the painful spectacle of Judges speculating in their own decisions. Instances are known where certain Judges of our courts have withheld opinions on matters affecting corporations until their relatives and friends have secured sufficient of stock to be bulled or beared by the action already decided upon. It is notorious that, in all instances where corporate rights are at stake in the courts, Wall street operators, by some system of legerdemain not understood by the general public, obtain the information long before the judicial decision is made known. This crying evil should be checked, and the Judges resorting to these evil and criminal practices should be degraded and severely punished.

The history of the aggressive policy pursued by the monopolies which now control the great staples of the country, as herein presented, cannot fail to arouse a thinking people to the urgent necessity for prompt and decisive action. Strongly entrenched in power, backed by millions of capital, and with a foothold in all branches of Government, it is a pertinent inquiry how long it will be, unless restrained by the determined will of the people, as expressed through our only medium, the ballot-box, before we shall have been so completely enslaved by the money kings of the land that extrication will be impossible. While the people are idle or indifferent the fetters are being forged which will shackle them to the throne of monopolistic power, and, once in full control, nothing short of a terrible revolution will bring relief. We urge that at every convention hereafter to be held in city, township, county or State, the Democratic party place itself upon record in unmistakable terms as openly opposed to further encroachments by corporations, and, while according them every just and legal right to which they are entitled, demand that they take their proper station as servants and not masters of the people.

NEW YORK CITY.

POPULATION, GEOGRAPHICAL, HISTORICAL, AND STATISTICAL FEATURES.

The City of New York includes Manhattan Island, Blackwell's, Ward's, and Randall's Islands in the East River; Governor's, Bedloe's, and Ellis Islands in the bay, now occupied by the United States Government, and a portion of the mainland north of Manhattan Island, separated from it by Harlem River and Spuyten Duyvel Creek. It is bounded north by the city of Yonkers, east by the Bronx River and the East River, south by the bay, and west by the Hudson or North River Its extreme length north from the Battery is 16 miles; its greatest width from the mouth of the Bronx west to the Hudson is 4½ miles; its area is 41½ square miles, or 26,500 acres. Several of the localities in the upper portion of Manhattan Island are popularly known by different names. Yorkville and Harlem are on the east side, the former in the vicinity of 86th street, the latter of 125th street; on the west side are Bloomingdale, Manhattanville, opposite Yorkville and Harlem respectively. Above Manhattanville, and in the vicinity of 150th street, is Carmansville; about 1½ mile further up Fort Washington or Washington Heights, and at the northwest extremity of the island, Inwood. The mainland portion of the city, formerly constituting the towns of Morrisania, West Farms, and Kingsbridge, Westchester Co., was annexed by the act of May 23, 1873, which went into effect on Jan. 1, 1874. The south portion, comprising Morrisania and a part of West Farms, forms the 23d ward of the city, the rest of West Farms with Kingsbridge constituting the 24th ward. The 23d ward contains several villages, with various popular designations, among which are Mott Haven and North New York, immediately across Harlem Bridge; Port Morris, on the East River; and Melrose Woodstock, Morrisania, Highbridgeville, and Claremont, further north. In the 24th ward are Tremont, Mount Hope, Mount Eden, Fairmount, West Farms, Belmont, Fordham, and Williamsbridge, between the Harlem and Bronx Rivers; Kingsbridgeville and Spuyten Duyvel, separated from the north extremity of Manhattan Island by Spuyten Duyvel Creek; Mosholu, north of these; and Riverdale and Mount St. Vincent on the Hudson.

The city, as a port of entry of the United States, comprises Brooklyn, Jersey City, and all the other municipalities on New York Bay and the Hudson and East Rivers, Newark being the nearest other port. About 60 per cent. of the entire foreign commerce of the United States is carried on through this port, the arrivals and departures of vessels being about 20,000 annually; of these, over 5,000 are steamers plying to and from foreign ports.

MANHATTAN ISLAND is 13½ miles long, and varies in breadth from a few hundred yards at the Battery to 2¼ miles at 14th st., diminishing again to less than a mile above 130th st., and having an area of nearly 22 square miles, or 14,000 acres. It is bounded N. by Spuyten Duyvel Creek and the Harlem River, which separate it from the mainland of the State; E. by the East River, S. by the bay, and W. by the Hudson River. The island was originally very rough, a rocky ridge running from the S. point northward and branching into several spurs, which united after 4 or 5 miles, culminating in Washington Heights, 238 ft. above tide-water, and a bold promontory of 130 ft. at the extreme northern point. The south portion of the island and the shores in some places were alluvial sand-beds, while marshes and ponds also occurred. But the original character of the surface has disappeared in the lower portion, and is disappearing in the upper before the constant grading and filling for the construction of new or the improvement of old streets. Manhattan Island was discovered by Henry Hudson in September, 1609, anchoring in New York Harbor on the 11th, and sailing up the Hudson on the 12th. The first settlement on the island was made by the Dutch in 1623, and was called New Amsterdam. In 1626 Peter Minuit, then Director-General, purchased the island of the Indians for goods worth $24. In 1664 the island was captured without resistance and occupied by the English, and the name of the settlement changed to New York, the territory having been granted to the Duke of York by Charles II. In July, 1673, the Dutch recaptured the city and named it New Orange; but it was restored to England in November, 1674. The city was finally evacuated by the British on Nov. 25, 1783. From 1785 to 1790 it was the seat of Government of the United States.

Population—At the beginning of the century, the population of the city, which then extended north about two miles from the Battery, was 60,000; in 1830 it was 202,000; in 1850, 515,000; in 1860, 805,000; and in 1870, the date of the last Federal census, 942,000. The territory on the mainland, annexed since 1870, had in that year a population of 31,000, making a total population in 1870, within the present city limits, of 973,000. Besides the resident population, the transient population, housed in hotels, etc., is estimated at about 30,000. Of the total population in 1870, about 550,000 were natives of the United States, and of the remainder over four-fifths were born in either Germany or Great Britain and Ireland. The colored population was a little over 13,000. There were 64,044 dwellings within the then city limits, giving 14.72 persons to each dwelling. The number of families was 185,789, giving a little over five persons to a family. The census of 1870 placed the real value of property in the city at $3,484,268,700. The population by the census of 1880 is 1,215,000, but even this gives but an inadequate idea of the importance of the city, as almost as many persons live outside of the city limits, within a radius of 20 miles from the City Hall, as live within them, so that if the population of what may be called the metropolitan district were to be given on the principle on which that of London is given, it would fall little short of 2,500,000. The city is officially divided into 24 wards, of which 2—the 23d and 24th—are on the mainland. For most political purposes, however, the ward boundaries are ignored in favor of the Assembly and Senate districts. The most densely populated ward is the 10th, where, according to the census of 1870, there were 377 inhabitants to the acre. In the same year there were 62,000 persons of ten years old in the city unable to write, of whom nearly 54,000 were of foreign birth, while of the children attending school, 141,000 were native born, and 14,000 foreign born. Of the 350,000 persons over ten years of age, returned as engaged in all occupations, 86,000 were females.

CHARTER OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK.—The charter of the city which is now in force was passed April 30, 1873, and is the last one of a succession of those instruments which have been passed from time to time during the existence of the city. The "Charter of 1873," as it is known, vests the corporate powers in the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the City of New York. The legislative powers are now vested in a board of twenty-two aldermen, holding office for a term of one year, from January 1st after election at the general election in November. The executive power is vested in the Mayor and the heads of departments created by the charter, and these heads of deparments are appointed by the Mayor, and confirmed by the Board of Aldermen for a term of six years (except in special cases). The Mayor is elected at the November general election for a term of two years. The departments created by the charter are those of Finance, Law, Police, Public Works, Parks, Docks, Charities and Corrections, Fire, Health, Taxes and Assessments, and Buildings. The salary of the Mayor is $10,000 per annum, and the salary of each Alderman $2,000. The original charter of New York was granted by James II. in 1686, and is known as the Dongan Charter. In 1739 the Montgomerie Charter was granted by George II. No direct changes were made in this charter for one hundred years. In 1829 a charter was prepared by the people of the city in convention, and in 1830 it was adopted in the Legislature. In 1849, 1851, 1853, 1857, and 1863 this charter was amended, and in 1870 the local government was practically reorganized by what is now known as the "Ring" charter.

He holds office for three years; has general superintendence of the public schools; visits them; inquires into their management; advises and directs in regard to their course of instruction and discipline. He apportions and distributes the public school moneys; examines the supplementary apportionments made to all the districts by the school commissioners, and sees that to each district is set apart its proportionate share, and that the same is expended by the trustees and paid by the supervisor according to law. Decides all appeals involving school controversies that are brought before him, and his decision is final. He is charged with the general management of teachers' institutes. He establishes rules and regulations concerning district school libraries. He makes appointments of State pupils to the institutions for the instruction of the deaf and dumb and the blind, upon the certificate of the proper local officers; and he visits and inquires into the condition and management of these institutions.

"KNOX, the Hatter," IMPORTER OF ENGLISH HATS, "Martin's" Umbrellas, Dent's Gloves.

He is chairman of the executive committee of the State Normal School, and apportions among the counties the number of pupils in that school to which each is entitled. He has charge of the Indian schools. He is, ex-officio, a Regent of the University, and chairman of the committee on teachers' classes in the academies. He is also ex-officio, a member of the board of trustees of the Idiot Asylum. He receives and compiles the abstracts of the reports from all the school districts in the State, setting forth their condition and proceedings, and the account of receipts and expenses for each year.

RATES OF POSTAGE.

DOMESTIC.

On all Letters throughout the United States, 3 cents for each half ounce or fraction thereof.

Drop or Local Letters, 2 cents where there is a free carriers' delivery. At other offices, 1 cent.

Valuable Letters, may be registered by the payment of a registration fee of 10 cents.

Money can be sent with absolute safety by mail by procuring a Money Order. The fees are, on Orders not exceeding $15, 10 cents; $15 to $30, 15 cents; $30 to $40, 20 cents; $40 to $50, 25 cents.

The following mailable matter can be sent at the rate of 1 cent for each ounce, or fractional part thereof, to wit: Printed Cards and Blanks, Lithographs, Prints, Chromo-Lithographs, Engravings, Photographic and Stereoscopic Views, Book Manuscript, Unsealed Circulars, Seeds, Cuttings, Bulbs, Roots and Scions, Flexible Patterns, Samples of Ores, Metals, Minerals and Merchandise, Sample Cards, Photographic Paper, Letter Envelopes, Postal Envelopes and Wrappers, Unprinted Cards, Plain and Ornamental Paper, Card Board and other flexible material, and all other mailable matter of the third-class not herein enumerated.

The rate on Newspapers (excepting Weeklies) and Periodicals not exceeding two ounces in weight, deposited for delivery by the office or its carriers, is 1 cent each; Periodicals weighing more than two ounces, 2 cents each; and these rates must be prepaid by stamps affixed.

The following mailable matter is subject to the rate of 1 cent for every two ounces, or fractional part thereof, and 1 cent for each additional two ounces, or fractional part thereof, to wit: Pamphlets, Occasional Publications, Transient Newspapers, Magazines, Books, Periodicals, Hand-bills, Posters, Sheet-Music (printed), Prospectuses, Maps, Proof-Sheets, Regular Publications, designed primarily for advertising purposes or for free circulation at nominal rates, and corrected Proof-Sheets.

Liquids, Poisons, Glass, Explosive Materials, and Obscene Books are not mailable. Printed matter, to pass through the mails at less than letter postage, must be so put up that the contents can be examined without destroying the wrapper.

All Transient Matter, except duly certified letters of Soldiers and Sailors, must be prepaid by stamps.

On all matter not above specified, same rate as letters.

No package will be forwarded which weighs over four pounds, except books published or circulated by order of Congress.

FOREIGN.

On Letters to Great Britain and Ireland.—For every half ounce or fraction thereof, 5 cents, if prepaid. If not prepaid, 5 cents extra will be collected in Great Britain, and 5 cents in the United States. Postal Cards (must be prepaid), 2 cents.

To the German States—For every half ounce or fraction thereof, via North German Union direct, 5 cents per half ounce; closed mail via England, 6 cents; prepayment optional. North German Union Mail, internal, postage is double. Postal Cards (must be prepaid), 2 cents.

To France, 5 cents per half ounce, by English or direct steamers. Postal Cards (must be prepaid), 2 cents.

When People are traveling, Comfort and Safety are the

TWO PRINCIPAL OBJECTS IN LIFE!

COMFORT!

"The Erie is by far the smoothest road I ever traveled on, either in this country or in Europe; and I consider it the perfection of railroad traveling. With the clean, light and airy coaches, polite attendance, freedom from dust, noise and jar, we reached Chicago hardly realizing what a long journey we had performed. And then such a breakfast as we had the morning after leaving New York, at Hornellsville, is certainly deserving "honorable mention." Such a table as they have there, with a full half an hour to enjoy it, is enough of itself to attract passengers."

—Ex. U. S. Minister, E. B. Washburne.

SAFETY!

"5,491,441 Passengers were carried over the Erie Railway in 1881. Of this vast number, only two were killed—one by falling from the platform of a car on which he insisted on standing, and the other in jumping from a train while in motion."

—New York State Engineer's Report for 1881.

No better evidence than the above need be wanted that both of these objects are secured to the traveler who purchases his ticket over the

THE NEW YORK STAR

FOR 1883

WITH the advent of a new year, THE STAR comes once more before its patrons in a new departure. Six years of continued effort, under its present able and vigorous management, have resulted in placing it in the front rank of successful metropolitan newspapers. The liberal and steadily increasing patronage extended to it during that period have aided legitimate journalistic methods and honorable enterprise in achieving a permanent position in the favor and confidence of the people of this city and State, and have enabled it to add to its previous resources facilities and equipments second to those of no newspaper in the United States.

With enlarged business premises and new presses of the most improved pattern, THE STAR feels abundantly equal to the task of supplying to its readers all over the country a frank, popular, energetic and enterprising newspaper during the present year.

The same principles that have guided THE STAR in the past shall control it in the future. It will present the news of the day in comprehensive and readable shape. With a corps of able editorial writers, with alert correspondents at Washington, Albany, and every point of interest throughout the country, and also in the capitals of Europe, and with telegraphic and local facilities equal to any of its contemporaries, it will reflect daily in its columns in a crisp, accurate, well-digested and readable shape, passing events on both continents. As heretofore, it will devote special attention to local affairs which are of most absorbing concern to the people of this city.

The political position of THE STAR is too well defined to need restatement. It will continue to represent the time-honored principles of Democracy fearlessly and consistently, and will apply them to the new issues of the time and the present interests of the country. It is the exponent of an aggressive policy in city, State and nation, and stands for the whole party in its unity and comprehensiveness. The Democracy of New York is one with that of the whole Union in advocating the cause of the people against monopolies, class favoritism and Rings of all kinds; and the removal of all arbitrary restrictions upon industry, trade and commerce; in securing cheap transportation for all sections; in promoting economy and reducing the burden of taxation; in demanding home rule, honest legislation, and the equal protection of all classes, races and religions under just laws impartially enforced.

During the coming year THE STAR'S columns will be marked with the same variety of entertaining and instructive matter that has heretofore won for it so gratifying a share of popular favor. Fresh accessions are continually made to its large staff of special contributors, and its pages are never disfigured by a moral blemish. Not a line is admitted into THE STAR that can offend the most sensitive taste. It presents with equal candor the views of all parties, and publishes unreservedly the news of the globe, supplementing these essential features with the best productions of our contemporary authors in prose and poetry, fact and fiction alike, and reviewing weekly in its liberal pages the current literature of the globe, and more especially of the land in which we live. These features have made THE STAR the model newspaper of the metropolis, and to maintain and advance that high standard shall be its earnest work and endeavor during 1883.

RELIABLE FOOD PRODUCTS.

Great progress has been made within a few years in manufacturing food products, and the standard of quality has been raised to a point far beyond that which formerly obtained. We claim that this has, to a considerable extent, been due to our efforts. As the Largest Manufacturers and Dealers in the world in this line, we consider it to our interest to manufacture only PURE and WHOLESOME goods, and pack them in a tidy and attractive manner. All goods bearing our name are guaranteed to be of superior quality, and dealers are authorized to refund the purchase price in any case where customers have cause for dissatisfaction. It is, therefore, to the interest of both dealers and consumers to use THURBER'S BRANDS.

ECLIPSES FOR THE YEAR 1883.

In the year 1883 there will be four Eclipses; two of the Sun and two of the Moon.

I. A slight Partial Eclipse of the Moon, April 22; only one digit being eclipsed anywhere. Invisible to the larger portion of North America. Visible to the Pacific Coast, Eastern Asia, Australia and Pacific Ocean.

II. A Total Eclipse of the Sun, May 6. Invisible. Visible chiefly to the South Pacific Ocean.

III. A Partial Eclipse of the Moon, October 15, 16. Visible to North and South America and extreme Western portions of Europe and Africa.

IV. An Annular Eclipse of the Sun, October 30th. Invisible to North America, except in part to the Pacific Coast. Visible to the North Pacific Ocean, and extreme Eastern edge of Asia. Beginning at San Francisco at 3 h. 47 m. P. M.:—the sun setting at moment of greatest partial eclipse.

MORNING AND EVENING STARS.

MERCURY will be evening star about January 21, May 14, and September 10; and morning star about March 3, July 2, and October 22.

VENUS will be morning star till September 20; and evening star the rest of the year.

JUPITER will be evening star till July 5, and morning star the rest of the year.

TAMMANY'S ADDRESS TO THE NATION.

Adopted November 17, 1882.

The Democracy of New York extends its congratulations to the Democrats of the State and nation on the brilliant victory achieved at the late election, whereby, after twenty-two years of Republican supremacy, the Democracy has once more been restored to power. This accession was not wholly unpresaged; it was the logical and inevitable sequence of an uprising of the people, an irresistible revolt against extreme Federal interference in State affairs, against widespread corruption in every department of the National Government, and a train of evils arising therefrom which threatened the well-being of the Republic and its people. The overthrow of the Republican party has demonstrated that the country is as truly Democratic at heart as in the days when the first tenets of our political faith were formulated and pronounced by the founders of the Constitution, when the battle was waged for State rights and civil independence. We congratulate the Democracy on these evidences of the indestructibility of Democratic principles, and that the people have once more resolved to place within their hands the reins of government and to intrust to their guidance the future welfare of the nation. The splendid triumph achieved on the 7th of November we consider to be due to a universal sense of reprobation against a party whose long tenure of power had rendered it arrogant, and reckless alike of the rights of States, communities and individuals, whose insatiable thirst for plunder had blinded it to the danger of indulgence in open public rapine, and whose ambition had even led it to commit the crime of subverting the sacred will of the people by the most corrupt methods that ever were resorted to in a free Republic, and which in 1876 culminated in placing in the Presidential chair a man who was rejected at the polls, and sustaining him by Federal intimidation and practices that belong to a despotism rather than a Republic.

In felicitating our fellow-countrymen upon the auspicious reversal of an order of things which was gradually tending towards a despotic centralization of the Federal power, we must not overlook the grave responsibilities that is before the Democracy. With the present time there opens a new era in our political history as a nation—an era which, we trust, may prove the harbinger of a better and purer administration of public affairs It rests with the Democracy to vindicate, by the exercise of sagacious statesmanship and wise discernment, the confidence which the people have reposed in it, and to retain that confidence by an unfaltering devotion to the best and highest interests of those who have placed it in power. It has laid down for itself a clear and unequivocal platform of principles, which it is sworn to carry out with the utmost fidelity, in order that the permanent benefits to result from this great change shall inure, not to a party merely, but to the whole nation, of whose interests it has now become the guardian and protector. By discreet legislation and an impartial administration, not only in Federal affairs, but in every State and municipality, it should endeavor to preserve that confidence which has now been so liberally extended to it. To the Democracy the eyes of the nation are now turned; and the expectations that have been raised must not be disappointed. They must be met by the evidences of a broad comprehension of existing public necessities, and a calm, statesmanlike judgment in every crisis allied to an honesty of purpose, which shall court the freest inquiry and criticism while defying accusation. This is the meaning of the Democratic victory.

KNOX, 194 FIFTH AVENUE, under Fifth Av. Hotel, 212 BROADWAY, corner Fulton Street, WE HAVE AGENTS IN EVERY CITY.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS OF REPUBLICAN MISRULE.

A quarter of a century of maladministration has eventuated in a wave of popular wrath that has forever blotted out a once powerful party. The late Republican party went down, overloaded with a record that would have sunk any administration on the face of the civilized globe. It debauched our Legislatures and debased our judiciary; it created and fostered innumerable systems and methods of spoliation, such as the Star route jobbery, the River and Harbor steal, the Credit Mobilier, the Public Land grants, the Salary and Subsidy grabs, the Pension frauds and the long series of flagrant robberies and malversation that have made the Naval Department a synonym for dishonesty. It enriched a horde of contractors, wrecked our land and naval defenses, made our military power a bye-word, our flag worthless as a protector to our citizens abroad, and lowered our prestige among the nations. These are some of the fruits of the corrupt tree of Republicanism. To root it out and give a larger, broader and healthier growth to the Republic under the benign auspices of a pure, progressive and popular Government becomes the mission of the Democracy.

Our Federal Government presents a field ripe for economic as well as political reforms. It should be the first duty of the Democratic Congress to inaugurate a radical reform in the Civil Service and to put an end to the demoralizing abuse of the Federal patronage. While favoring a liberal expenditure for every real need, we renew our protest, already so emphatically recorded at the ballot-box, against all wasteful or corrupt uses of the public funds, lands or other resources. Our industries and our people have been injured and their progress retarded by the levying of war taxes upon them for nearly two decades after the close of hostilities. We demand the immediate abolition of Internal Revenue taxes and a revision of the present oppressive Tariff, not for the benefit of any special class or corporation, but for the greatest good of the whole people. The primary object of a Tariff is to furnish a revenue to the Government; its coincident object should be to protect the American workingman, not to build up despotic monopolies.

We favor the enactment of such legislation, in amendment of the navigation laws, as will restore our merchant marine, and secure to us our proper share of the world's carrying trade. As a natural accompaniment of this process, we approve of a liberal annual appropriation, as soon as the Navy Department shall have passed into the control of a trustworthy official. To rebuild our navy, which has been ruined by Robeson and his confederates at an outlay that ought to have given us one of the finest fleets in the world.

We should have but a single kind of paper currency, based upon and redeemable in gold and silver, and issued directly by the Federal Treasury, on equal terms to all banking institutions and individuals requiring it. There is no reason why the people should be taxed twenty million dollars annually in order to be supplied with National Bank notes.

Sagacious, practicable measures should at once be inaugurated by Congress and by the various State Legislatures to check the advance of monopolies which are absorbing an undue percentage of the national wealth by perverting all the great necessaries of life into engines of extortion, and by inflating or depressing values at will for speculative purposes. A bill should be introduced by our Democratic Congressmen from this State authorizing the President to purchase the existing telegraph lines and for the purpose of giving the people of the United States the benefit of a Postal Telegraphy. Palpably, the railroads constitute the most potent factor in this monopolistic regime, and they must be dealt with firmly and justly, without vindictiveness or passion. The millions of fertile acres awarded to them, but never earned by fulfillment of the stipulations embodied in the grants, must be restored to the Government for the use of actual settlers. Discriminations against individuals and localities must be rigidly prohibited and punished. All combinations, pools, and syndicates organized for the purpose of "cornering" the necessaries of life should be made penal offenses, to the end that no speculative conspiracy may enrich its authors by levying arbitrary tribute on the food, fuel, and raiment of the people.

THE DUTY OF THE STATE LEGISLATURE.

We also congratulate the Democracy of this State on the assured control of both branches of the Legislature. We remind our representatives at Albany that they stand solemnly pledged before the people to support and enact such laws as will inure to the benefit of the whole community. They are pledged among other matters to give our people an equitable Excise law. Much remains to be done before these promises are redeemed.

On their faithful service largely depends the welfare of the people and the future status of the Democracy in the State. And we especially congratulate the Democracy of this city on the election, by their united suffrages, of a Mayor whose record as a citizen in public and private life, and whose wide range of experience in commercial affairs, afford a sure guarantee of an improvement in our municipal administration, and who will discharge with firm and impartial hand the duties and responsibilities imposed upon him. Supported by a Democratic Council, we may reasonably expect that the new incumbent of that important office will make for himself a record such as shall occasion no citizen a pang of regret that he supported Franklin Edson at the polls.

We recognize the increasing public sentiment in favor of a new charter for this city. The existing charter is, in many respects, a satisfactory one; but certain amendments seem to be called for by the changing necessities of the times. The Board of Apportionment, as now constituted, is a conservative body. It has control of the finances of the city, and possesses the power of effecting a considerable saving on the present public expenditures, if so disposed. We would suggest for consideration whether it would not be well to have representatives on that Board to be selected by the business interests of the city, irrespective of politics, and without reference to any predilections entertained by the Mayor or the heads of the different departments. The change would be both popular and wholesome, as giving the business men and taxpayers of the city a direct voice through their own representatives in the apportionment of the city finances.

As Democrats, we hold fast to the doctrine of representative popular government in municipal affairs as well as in the State and nation. To invest one man with absolute power and authority, in any administrative capacity where the welfare of a community is concerned, is to confess our present system of government a failure. Should the executive head of a municipality or the Governor of a State, endowed with such prerogative, be swayed by arbitrary inclinations, his irresponsible and unqualified power would become despotic, and would operate to the injury of the community or the State. Instead of being the protector of the people, he would become their oppressor. The same principles that governs a business corporation, which, in addition to its president, elects directors to advise and consult as to the policy to be pursued in the interest of the general stockholders, should prevail in the conduct of the affairs of a municipality, the head of which is a trustee for the whole people, and whose duty it is to direct and govern wisely in their interests, and in accordance with the counsels of those whom the people have chosen as his advisers. And that such counsel and advice may be of value, it follows that the people should elect as members of the Common Council men of experience and sagacity in public affairs. On the wisdom of their choice in this respect depends in a great measure the success or failure of city government. The Mayor should possess the power to make appointments, subject to the confirmation of the Board of Aldermen, and also the power to direct removals for good and sufficient cause; but at no time should he be allowed the power of making removals with the object of creating official vacancies for persons who, whatever the relations they may sustain as proteges of the Executive, are either undesirable by reason of incompetency or because their appointment has not been formally submitted to the Aldermen for approval or rejection. The system of arbitrary appointments has been tried in this city and proved a failure, leading even to a riot in 1857, and culminating in the establishment of a State Police. While it may be true that it would be entirely safe to intrust certain individuals with absolute power, and that self-respect and a conscientious sense of public duty would insure its careful and legitimate exercise, still we hold that the experiment is not only undemocratic and repugnant to the idea of popular government, besides being too dangerous to hazard where the interests at stake are of such magnitude as those that centre in this great metropolis.

REFORMS IN THE CITY GOVERNMENT.

We consider that the best interests of the cities throughout the State demand the substitution of single-headed departments for the divided commissions now in operation. In this city especially the change would result beneficially, both in the administration of the departments and in the reduced expense to the tax-payers. This change should be made general, with the exception of the Department of Charities and Correction and the Board of Police, which latter, being charged with the protection of the ballot-box, the peace and the property and person of the citizen, should remain non-partisan. Were the entire authority in the Police Department vested in one individual in a large city like our own, it would be liable to be utilized as a dangerous factor in elections and in the interests of a party. In all other departments the adoption of single-headed Commissions, with direct and undivided responsibility to the principal department of the municipal government, would tend to increase their efficiency and compel more economic, careful and conscientious methods than now prevail, and a decidedly better administration would result, as officials would then recognize the necessity of devoting their time and personal attention to the business of the particular department they represent.

We favor the practice of the strictest economy compatible with efficiency in every branch of the city government. Wasteful extravagance, such as has characterized certain departments in the past, are to be condemned and avoided in the future, while the opposite extreme of parsimony which would cripple the departments in their varied and important functions, is to be equally deprecated. An illustration of the evil of ultra-economy is afforded in the parsimonious policy that would refuse a sufficient appropriation to clean and light the streets of the metropolis and to furnish a sufficient water supply—matters certainly essential to the health and comfort of the community. We also favor the widening of the streets running parallel with and adjacent to Broadway for the relief of that overcrowded thoroughfare and the accommodation of our increasing traffic which demands new and central avenues of transportation. This could be accomplished now while property is comparatively cheap at an enormous saving to the city contrasted with the expenditure it must necessarily involve a few years hence with real estate rapidly appreciating in values in the down-town districts of the city.

We favor legislation that will effectually redress the wrong that is done to free labor by the contract system that now prevails in our State prisons. There must be an end to manufacturing in these institutions in competition with the honest tradesman, artisan and mechanic. In no country except the United States is convict labor pitted against the workman who never felt the disgace of a felon's surroundings. Attempts to introduce convict labor in English prisons resulted in the mechanics rising en masse to oppose it. To have persisted in it would have resulted in a revolution. We protest against the perpetuation of this system, and urge on legislative representatives to enact such a law as will wipe it out forever and leave the industrial field open to the workingmen of America.

NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM.

ADOPTED AT CINCINNATI, JUNE 24, 1880.

The Democrats of the United States in convention assembled declare:

First—We pledge ourselves anew to the constitutional doctrines and traditions of the Democracy, as illustrated by the teaching and example of a long line of Democratic statesmen and patriots, and embodied in the platform of the last National Convention of the party.

Second—Opposition to centralizationalism, and to that dangerous spirit of encroachment, which tends to consolidate the powers of all the departments in one, and thus to create, whatever may be the form of Government, a real despoti-m. No sumptuary laws; separation of Church and State for the good of each; common schools fostered and protected.

Third—Home rule, honest money, consisting of gold and silver, and paper convertible into coin on demand; the strict maintenance of the public faith, State and National, and a tariff for revenue only.

Fourth—The subordination of the military to the civil power, and a genuine and thorough reform in the Civil Service.

Fifth—The right to a free ballot is a right preservative of all rights, and must and shall be maintained in every part of the United States.

Sixth—The existing Administration is the representative of conspiracy only, and its claim of right to surround the ballot boxes with troops and Deputy Marshals to intimidate and obstruct the Electors, and the unprecedented use of the veto to maintain its corrupt and despotic power, insults the people and imperils their institutions.

Seventh—The great fraud of 1876 and 1877, by which upon a false count of the Electorial votes of two States the candidate defeated at the polls was declared to be the President, and for the first time in American history the will of the people was set aside under a threat of military violence, struck a deliberate blow at our system of representative government. The Democratic party, to preserve the country from the horrors of a civil war, submitted for a time in the form of a patriotic belief that the people would punish this crime in 1880. This issue precedes and dwarfs every other, and imposes a more sacred duty upon the people of the Union than ever before addressed the consciences of a nation of freemen.

Eighth—We execrate the course of this Administration in making places in the Civil Service a reward of political crime, and demand a reform by statute which will make it forever impossible for a defeated candidate to bribe his way to the seat of a usurper by billeting villainies upon the people.

Ninth—The resolution of S. J. Tilden not again to be a candidate for the exalted office to which he was elected by a majority of his countrymen, and from which he was excluded by the frauds of the Republican party, is received by the Democats of the United States with deep sensibility; and they declare their confidence in his wisdom, patriotism, and integrity unshaken by the assaults of the common enemy, and they further assure him that he is followed into the retirement he has chosen for himself by the sympathy and respect of his fellow citizens, who regard him as one who, by elevating the standards of the public service, and by adorning and purifying the same merits the lasting gratitude of his country and his party.

Tenth—We demand free ships, and a living chance for American commerce upon the seas and upon the land; no discrimination in favor of transportation lines, corporations or monopolies.

Eleventh—An amendment of the Burlingame treaty; no more Chinese immigration, except for travel, education, and foreign commerce therein; carefully guarded.

Twelfth—Public money and public credit for public purposes solely, and the public lands for actual settlers.

Thirteenth—The Democratic party is the friend of labor and the laboring man, and pledges itself to protect him alike against the cormorants and the Commune.

Fourteenth—We congratulate the country upon the honesty and thrift of a Democratic Congress which has reduced the public expenditure $40,000,000 a year: upon the continuation of prosperity at home and the national honor abroad, and above all upon the promise of such a change in the administration of the Government as shall insure us genuine and lasting reform in every department of the public service.

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

ADOPTED AT CHICAGO, JUNE 5, 1880.

The Republican party, in National Convention assembled, at the end of twenty years since the federal government was first committed to its charge, submit to the people of the United States this brief report of its administration. It suppressed a rebellion which had armed nearly a million of men to subvert the national authority. It reconstructed the Union of the States with freedom, instead of slavery, as its corner-stone. It transformed four millions of human beings from the likeness of things to the rank of citizens. It relieved congress from the infamous work of hunting fugitive slaves, and charged it to see that slavery does not exist. It has raised the value of our paper currency from 38 per cent. to the par of gold. It has restored upon a solid basis payment in coin for all the national obligations, and has given us a currency absolutely good and equal in every part of our extended country. It has lifted the credit of the nation from the point where six per cent. bonds sold at eighty-six cents, to that where four per cent. bonds are eagerly sought at a premium.

Under its administration railways have increased from 31,000 miles in 1860, to more than 82,000 miles in 1879. Our foreign trade has increased from $700,000,000 to $1,150,000,000 in the same time, and our exports which were $20,000,000 less than our imports in 1860, were $264,000,000 more than our imports in 1879. Without resorting to loans, it has since the war closed, defrayed the ordinary expenses of the government, besides the accruing interest on the public debt, and has annually dispensed more than $30,000,000 for soldiers' pensions. It has paid $888,000,000 of the public debt, and by refunding the balance at lower rates, has reduced the annual interest charge from nearly $151,000,000 to less than $89,000,000. All the industries in the country have revived labor is in demand, wages have increased, and throughout the entire country there is evidence of a coming prosperity greater than we have ever enjoyed. Upon this record the Republican party ask for the continued confidence and support of the people, and this convention submits to their approval the following statements of the principles and purposes which will continue to guide and inspire its efforts :

First - We affirm that the work of the last twenty-one years has been such as to commend itself to the favor of the nation, and that the fruits of the costly victories which we have achieved, through immense difficulties, should be preserved ; that the peace regained should be cherished ; that the dissevered union now happily restored, should be perpetuated, and that the liberties secured to this generation should be transmitted undiminished to future generations ; that the order established and the credit acquired should never be impaired ; that the pensions promised should be extinguished by the full payment of every dollar thereof ; that the reviving industries should be further promoted, and that the commerce, already so great, should be steadily encouraged.

Second—The Constitution of the United States is a supreme law and not a mere contract ; out of confederated states is made a sovereign nation Some powers are denied to the nation while others are denied to the States ; but the boundary between the powers delegated and those reserved is to be determined by the national and not by the State tribunals.

Third—The work of popular education is one left to the care of the several States, but it is the duty of the National Government to aid that work to the extent of its constitutional duty.

The intelligence of the nation is but the aggregate of the intelligence in the several States, and the destiny of the nation must be guided, not by the genius of any one State, but by the average genius of all.

Fourth—The Constitution wisely forbids congress to make any law respecting an establishment of religion, but it is idle to hope that the nation can be protected against the influence of sectarianism while each State is exposed to its domination. We therefore recommend that the Constitution be so amended as to lay the same prohibition upon the legislature of each State, and to forbid the appropriation of public funds to the support of sectarian schools.

Fifth—We affirm the belief avowed in 1876, that the duties levied for the purpose of revenue should so discriminate as to favor American labor ; that no further grant of the public domain should be made to any railway or other corporation ; that slavery having perished in the States, its twin barbarity, polygamy, must die in the Territories. That everywhere protection accorded to citizens of American birth must be secured to citizens by American adoption, and that we esteem it the duty of congress to develop and improve our water courses and harbors, but insist that further subsidies to private persons or corporations must cease ; that the obligations of the republic to men who preserved its integrity in the hour of battle are undiminished by the lapse of the fifteen years since their final victory—to do them perpetual honor is, and shall forever be, the grateful privilege and sacred duty of the American people.

Sixth—Since the authority to regulate immigration and intercourse between the United States and foreign nations rests with Congress, or with the United States and its treaty making, the Republican party, regarding the unrestricted immigration of the Chinese as an evil of great magnitude, invoke the exercise of those powers to restrain and limit that immigration by the enactment of such just, humane, and reasonable provisions as will produce that result.

Seventh—That the purity and patriotism which characterize the earlier career of Rutherford B. Hayes, in peace and war, and which guided the thoughts of our immediate predecessors to him for a Presidential candidate, have continued to inspire him in his career as Chief Executive, and that history will accord to his administration the honors which are due to an efficient, just, and courteous discharge of the public business, and will honor his interpositions between the people and proposed partisan laws.

Eighth—We charge upon the Democratic party the habitual sacrifice of patriotism and justice to a supreme and insatiable lust of office and patronage ; that to obtain possession of the National and State governments and the control of place and position, they have obstructed all efforts to promote the purity and conserve the freedom of suffrage, and have devised fraudulent certifications and returns; have labored to unseat lawfully elected members of Congress to secure at all hazards the vote of a majority of the States in the House of Representatives; have endeavored to occupy by force and fraud the places of trust given to others by the people of Maine, and rescued by the courageous action of Maine's patriotic sons; have by methods vicious in principle and tyrannical in practice, attached partisan legislation to appropriation bills upon whose passage the very movements of the government depends, and have crushed the rights of individuals; have advocated the principles and sought the favor of rebellion against the nation, and have endeavored to obliterate the sacred memory of the war; and to overcome its inestimably valuable results of nationality, personal freedom, and individual equality. The equal, steady, and complete enforcement of the laws and the protection of all our citizens in the enjoyment of all privileges and immunities guaranteed by the constitution are the first duties of the nation. The dangers of a "solid" South can only be averted by a faithful performance of every promise which the nation has made to the citizen. The execution of the laws and the punishment of those who violate them, are the only safe methods by which an enduring peace can be secured and genuine prosperity established throughout the South. Whatever promises the nation makes the nation must perform, and the nation cannot with safety relegate this duty to the States. The "solid" South must be divided by the peaceful agencies of the ballot, and all opinions must there find free expression, and to this end the honest vote must be protected against terrorism, violence or fraud. And we affirm it to be the duty and purpose of the Republican party to use every legitimate means to restore all the States of this Union to the most perfect harmony that may be practicable, and we submit it to the practical, sensible people of the United States to say whether it would not be dangerous to the dearest interests of our country at this time to surrender the administration of the national government to the party which seeks to overthrow the existing policy under which we are so prosperous, and thus bring distrust and confusion where there are now order, confidence and hope. The Republican party adhering to the principles affirmed by its last National Convention of respect for the constitutional rules governing appointments to office, adopts the declaration of President Hayes, that the reform in the civil service shall be thorough, radical and complete. To that end it demands the co-operation of the legislature with the executive departments of the government, and that Congress shall so legislate that fitness ascertained by proper, practical tests, shall admit to the public service. That the tenure of administrative offices (except those through which the distinctive policy of the party in power shall be carried out) shall be permanent during good behavior, and that the power of removal for cause, with due responsibility for the good conduct of subordinates, shall accompany the power of appointment.

DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM.

ADOPTED AT SYRACUSE, SEPTEMBER 22, 1882.

The Democracy of New York, in convention assembled, declare:

First—That whereas, the country is again subjected by Republican maladministration to the evils and abuses which afflicted it in 1874, we reaffirm the principles of our platform of that year, under which the Republican party was driven from power and the Government of the State brought back for a time to the practice of economy and honesty.

Second—We arraign the Republican party in Congress for its culpable failure to reduce the amount of taxation to a sum sufficient only for the legitimate requirements of the Government under an honest and frugal administration, and we favor such tariff and fiscal reforms as shall relieve an overtaxed people from all unnecessary burdens and prevent the accumulation of a fund to be lavished in profligate legislation and in the support of a horde of useless and idle placemen. In particular we proclaim our condemation of the River and Harbor bill, in which, by the multiplication and mutual support of obnoxious provisions, an infamous measure purchased its passage through Congress, in disregard of the limitations of the Constitution and to the depravity of the public morals.

Third—In the nomination of the Secretary of the Treasury for Governor of New York, by which, in effect, the candidate for the Chief Magistracy of the State was appointed by the President, we see a fresh and dangerous power of public patronage; and urged by this alarming spectacle, we protest against Federal intervention in State elections, and repeat our demand of 1881 for a reform and purification of the Civil Service; and we are further admonished by recent experience of Republican corruption of the necessity of forbidding by penal enactment the levying of blackmail from dependent officeholders to promote the interests of a party which finds no support in the intelligent and independent convictions of the people.

Fourth—We hold the present Republican administration responsible for unredressed outrages on our foreign-born fellow-citizens when abroad, and we demand for them the protection to which they are entitled in return for their voluntary allegiance, and which the honor of the American Government requires shall be extended to them.

Fifth—We charge that in this State the Republican party has lowered the standard of the public service by its local administration and by the representatives it has sent to the two Houses of Congress; that it has made the State Legislature the instrument of the lobby to rob the public and enrich corporations, and has refused to its Governor the renomination which was due to him by custom because he dare to use his veto power to thwart such purposes in disregard of those who sought to control him by the influence of political and moneyed power.

Sixth—We demand the restoration of the New York State National Guard to the efficiency of which it has been deprived, and which made it the representative of the soldierly spirit of the people.

Seventh—In order to restore our merchant marine to its former prosperity, we demand immediately revision and amendment of the laws relating to shipping and the carriage of ocean freight.

Eighth—We favor the adoption by the next Legislature of the resolution of 1882, providing an amendment to the Constitution for the local self-government of cities.

Ninth—Primary elections openly and honestly conducted afford the sure means of securing the most suitable candidates for public offices, thus best preserving a Democratic form of government. We therefore favor the speedy passage of general laws providing against fraud and intimidation at such election.

Tenth—The public welfare demands that the various questions relating to chartered monopolies and the method of transportation should be met and decided, and we are in favor of the adoption of measures to restrict the growing power of such monopolies. They should be subjected to the strict supervision of the Commission now provided by law. All unjust discrimination in the transportation of passengers and merchandise should be prohibited. The charges of corporations which have taken the property of private citizens for public use should be limited to the cost of service, with a reasonable profit, instead of the mercenary exaction of all the traffic will bear; the laws should be so revised that taxation should be so reduced as far as possible, and that personal and corporate property may severally pay their fair proportion of taxes.

Eleventh—We approve the submission to the vote of the people of the Constitutional Amendment in favor of free canals, and we have full confidence that they will dispose of it in such manner as to promote all the great interests of the State, agricultural, manufacturing and commercial.

Twelfth—We reaffirm the policy always maintained by the Democratic party, that it is of first importance that labor should be made free, healthful and receive just remuneration; that convict labor should not come in competition with the industry of law-abiding citizens; that the labor of children should be surrounded with such safeguards as their health, their right of education and their future as useful members of the community demand; that workshops, whether large or small, should be under such sanitary control as will insure the health and comfort of the employed and will protect all against unwholesome labor and surroundings; that labor shall have the same right as capital to combine for its own protection, and that all legislation which cramps industry or which enables the powerful to oppose the weak should be repealed; and to promote the interests of labor, we recommend the collection of statistics and information respecting the improvements, the needs and the abuses of the various branches of industry.

Thirteenth—Whereas, the founder of the Democratic party inculcated a frequent recurrence to fundamental principles, the Democracy of New York again avow their fidelity to those tenets of economy, simplicity and respect for the liberty of the individual which characterized the administration of government in the primitive days of the Republic.

Fourteenth—And, also, we arraign the Republican party for its wholesale gifts of the public lands to railroad jobbers, thus robbing the mass of the people of their rightful inheritance, and we demand that, so far as possible, these lands shall be reclaimed and reserved for the occupation of actual settlers; and we request the Democratic Representatives in Congress from the State of New York to use their power to secure this great blessing.

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

ADOPTED AT SARATOGA SEPTEMBER 21, 1882.

Resolved, That the Republican party of New York has no new doctrine to present upon the questions which have heretofore occupied much of the public attention, such as honest money, pure elections, the regulation of the traffic in intoxicating liquors, the protection of home industry and the necessity of restricting the power and influence of corporations. It is content to be judged by its past declarations and acts.

Resolved, That equitable taxation, reaching corporations as well as persons, is approved as a correct system which should be perfected; that the practical results of recent legislation upon this subject fully justify the action of the Republican party in its adoption.

Resolved, That monopolies oppressing the people or unfairly discriminating against local interests are wrong in principle, and should not be tolerated.

Resolved, That stringent legislation should be enacted to secure the purity and honesty of primary elections, and all possible safeguards should be thrown about these sources of the political action of the people.

Resolved, That the practice of appealing to the Legislature to overrule the action of the local authorities when confining themselves within the powers conferred upon them, should be discouraged, both by the Legislature and the Governor, and should be resorted to only in extreme cases.

Resolved, That changes in the fundamental law should not ordinarily be the subject of party action; but they should, when proposed, always be carefully scrutinized by the people, who should signify their wishes with reference to them as generally as they do in their selection of their representatives. We therefore urge the people of this State, without reference to party, to examine with intelligent care the Constitutional amendments submitted to them, and to give full expression at the polls to their judgment and wishes thereon.

Resolved, That while there are varying opinions on the subject of liquors, we subscribe to the principle that propositions on that subject, like all other propositions for a change in the fundamental law, ought to be submitted to the popular vote.

Resolved, That the conduct of the Democracy in this State during this year and anew, emphatically attests their signal unworthiness of public confidence. They signalized their return to power in the Legislature by wantonly sacrificing the public interests upon the altar of greedy and reckless partisanship. A party which could devote nearly two months to a quarrel of its factions for spoils, but could give no time to the equalization of taxation and to other questions vitally affecting the welfare of our people, insults the intelligence of the electors of New York when it asks them to approve its flagrant abuse of legislative powers by handing over to it the Executive branch of the State Government.

Resolved, That the financial achievements of the Republican Administration are next in importance to its work of the preservation of the nation itself, as they are attended by the rapid liquidation of a great public debt, incurred to meet the national emergency, and by the reduction of the rate of interest to its present low figures; and that it is the policy of the party to bring taxation within the lowest practical limits, and by the strictest system of economy, reduce the governmental expenses and the number of those employed in the collection of the revenue, thus relieving the people of all unnecessary burdens.

Resolved, That the Civil Service should be placed upon a proper basis by adequate legislation, so as to give facilities for the execution of the law now upon the statute book, with competitive tests for admission to the service so arranged as to secure the necessary qualifications for the positions sought, together with a fixed term for incumbents, removal from office during the term of appointment to be only for cause.

KNOX, 194 FIFTH AVENUE, under Fifth Av. Hotel, 212 BROADWAY, corner Fulton Street, | WE HAVE AGENTS IN EVERY CITY.

Resolved, That the recent law of Congress designed to suppress polygamy, which offends the moral sense of mankind and prevents the administration of justice through the usual instrumentalities of law, approves itself to the people, and that it should be supplemented by such laws as may be necessary to obtain the object in view.

Resolved, That the economy and efficiency of the present Republican State Administration entitles its members to the highest praise. Governor Cornell's fearless and firm exercise of the veto power, while it has naturally brought down upon him hostile criticism, has shown his determination to protect the interests of the State and the people alike against individuals and corporations.

Resolved, That we tender to President Chester A. Arthur our assurance of confidence in his Administration, and our approval of the wise and patriotic course pursued by him under the embarrassing circumstances of his accession to office. His courage in resisting the enactment of a River and Harbor bill which violated the accepted rules of constitutional power, and which, while authorizing many needed public improvements, carried with it a large and wasteful appropriation for works of neither national nor public good, has secured for him the admiration even of his enemies.

Resolved, That a hearty support be pledged to the nominees of this convention, whose records in public life, distinguished abilities and special fitness commend them to the people's approval at the ballot-box.

"KNOX, the Hatter," IMPORTER OF ENGLISH HATS, "Martin's" Umbrellas, Dent's Gloves.

RATES OF POSTAGE.

DOMESTIC.

On all Letters throughout the United States, 3 cents for each half ounce or fraction thereof.

Drop or Local Letters, 2 cents where there is a free carriers' delivery. At other offices, 1 cent.

Valuable Letters may be registered by the payment of a registration fee of 10 cents.

Money can be sent with absolute safety by mail by procuring a Money Order. The fees are, on Orders not exceeding $15, 10 cents; $15 to $30, 15 cents; $30 to $40, 20 cents; $40 to $50, 25 cents.

The following mailable matter can be sent at the rate of 1 cent for each ounce, or fractional part thereof, to wit: Printed Cards and Blanks, Lithographs, Prints, Chromo-Lithographs, Engravings, Photographic and Stereoscopic Views, Book Manuscript, Unsealed Circulars, Seeds, Cuttings, Bulbs, Roots and Scions, Flexible Patterns, Samples, of Ores, Metals, Minerals and Merchandise, Sample Cards, Photographic Paper, Letter Envelopes, Postal Envelopes and Wrappers, Unprinted Cards, Plain and Ornamental Paper, Card Board and other flexible material, and all other mailable matter of the third-class not herein enumerated.

The rate on Newspapers (excepting weeklies) and Periodicals not exceeding two ounces in weight, deposited for delivery by the office or its carriers, is 1 cent each; Periodicals weighing more than two ounces, 2 cents each; and these rates must be prepaid by stamps affixed.

The following mailable matter is subject to the rate of 1 cent for every two ounces, or fractional part thereof, and 1 cent for each additional two ounces, or fractional part thereof, to wit: Pamphlets, Occasional Publications, Transient Newspapers, Magazines, Books, Periodicals, Hand-bills, Posters, Sheet-Music (printed), Prospectuses, Maps, Proof-Sheets, Regular Publications, designed primarily for advertising purposes or for free circulation at nominal rates, and corrected Proof-Sheets.

Liquids, Poisons, Glass, Explosive Materials and Obscene Books are not mailable. Printed matter, to pass through the mails at less than letter postage, must be so put up that the contents can be examined without destroying the wrapper.

All Transient Matter, except duly certified letters of Soldiers and Sailors, must be prepaid by stamps.

On all matter not above specified, same rate as letters.

No package will be forwarded which weighs over four pounds, except books published or circulated by order of Congress.

VALUE OF PROPERTY OWNED BY THE CITY OF NEW YORK.

In 1871 and appraisement was made by Messrs. Bleecker, Palmer, and Mnller of the real estate belonging to the City, but the report was not printed.

The following is a summary of that appraisment:

The Central Park, containing 10,000 lots, at $10,000 each	$100,000.000
Twenty smaller parks and places	33,000,000
Ten public markets	5,000,000
City lots not in public use	4,000,000
Water lots and Brooklyn lots	1,500,000
Seventy Piers, North and East rivers	5,000,000
Croton Aqueduct property	100,000,000
Fire Department—Land, Buildings, and appa atus	3,500,000
Police Stations, etc	1,500,000
Public Education—Land and buildings	6,000,000
Courts, prisons, and the like, with islands in the East river	7,500,000
Total	$267,000,000

No material changes have been made in the property of the city, except improvements of parks, docks, wharves, expenditures for Brooklyn Bridge, New County Court-house and other public buildings, amounting to many millions of dollars. The depreciation in value of real estate would, of course, somewhat reduce an appraisement at this time.

VALUE OF PROPERTY OWNED BY THE CITY OF NEW YORK.

In 1871 an appraisement was made by Messrs. Bleecker, Palmer, and Muller of the real estate belonging to the City, but the report was not printed.

The following is a summary of that appraisement:

The Central Park, containing 10,000 lots, at $10,000 each	$100,000,000
Twenty smaller parks and places	33,000,000
Ten public markets	5,000,000
City lots not in public use	4,000,000
Water lots and Brooklyn lots	1,500,000
Seventy piers, North and East rivers	5,000,000
Croton Aqueduct property	100,000,000
Fire Department—Land, buildings, and apparatus	3,500,000
Police Stations, etc	1,500,000
Public Education—Land and buildings	6,000,000
Courts, prisons, and the like, with islands in the East river	7,500,000
Total	$267,000,000

No material changes have been made in the property of the city, except improvements of parks, docks, wharves, expenditures for Brooklyn Bridge, New County Court-house and other public buildings, amounting to many millions of dollars. The depreciation in value of real estate would, of course, somewhat reduce an appraisement at this time.

The New York Star.

At the opening of a Presidential year, when great issues are before the country, THE STAR deems it fitting to address a word to earnest Democrats throughout the nation.

The past four years have been eventful ones to the party. New political factors have arisen, created by the necessities of the times and the better education of the people. The principles of progressive Democracy have left a deep impress upon events. To-day the prospects of the party are such as to encourage every Democrat to increased exertion and devotion to its interests. With loyal and individual effort on every side, the coming year will once more witness the Democracy supreme in State and nation, administering just and equal laws to a happy people and honest government throughout the whole land.

As the leading Democratic daily newspaper in the foremost State in the Union, the STAR invites the hearty and sincere co-operation of Democrats all over the country to this end. And it specially asks those Democrats who more immediately represent the party in Congress and in the State Legislatures to exert themselves to the same patriotic purpose. The STAR has striven strenuously and persistently to lay before the people the great questions of the day on which both the leading political parties have gone on record. It has exposed the corrupt and public infamy of the Republican party, the danger of centralization, the gradual tendency of the administration to create an aristocracy of wealth and a serfdom composed of the American workingmen. It has shown the repeated flagrant constitutional violations, of which the party in power has been guilty, both in making new laws as well as in the misconstruction and maladministration of the old. It has unsparingly exposed the notorious jobbery and the wholesale rapacity of Republican officialism, the nepotism of those in power, the violation of the sacred trust of the public funds; the flagrant diversion of the public lands by grants to individuals and railroads to the detriment of bona fide settlers; the overshadowing power of the railroad and corporation lobby in all matters affecting legislation, and the almost universal degradation of the exalted functions of government to purposes alien to those for which the founders of this Republic created and designed them.

THE STAR has succeeded, almost unaided, in drawing popular attention away from quarrels over dead issues of the war epoch, and gradually centering it on the vital economic issues that now engage the public mind. To the platform of gradual Tariff Reform, (as distant from ruinously high protection on the one hand, or disastrously sudden reductions on the other), formulated by THE STAR in the Campaign of 1880, intelligent men everywhere—in Congress and out of it—are now giving adherence.

THE STAR cultivates no "hedging" policy. It believes in the principles of Jeffersonian Democracy, and never swerves from their application. Located in the metropolis, it is in a position to constantly feel the pulse of the country and to publish all the important news of the day. In comprehensive news and high literary merit, it is not surpassed by any journal in the metropolis. It numbers among its staff correspondents and contributors, some of the ablest and best known writers of the day, while its extensive circulation, largely among Democrats, affords a field for practical party service which no other newspaper in this State affords.

By the Democracy of this State it is recognized as their ablest exponent, while its varied merits otherwise render it indispensable to many thousands of readers throughout the country who desire a journal which combines sound political views with a wide field of general literary topics and the current news of the day.

It is desired to still further extend its sphere of influence among the party and the people. Democrats everywhere are requested to send in their subscriptions to the publisher at the address given below.

THE NEW YORK STAR,

Nos. 24, 26 & 28 North William St.,

Surface Indications

What a miner would very properly term "surface indications" of what is beneath, are the Pimples, Sties, Sore Eyes, Boils, and Cutaneous Eruptions with which people are annoyed in spring and early summer. The effete matter accumulated during the winter months, now makes its presence felt, through Nature's endeavors to expel it from the system. While it remains, it is a poison that festers in the blood and may develop into Scrofula. This condition causes derangement of the digestive and assimilatory organs, with a feeling of enervation, languor, and weariness—often lightly spoken of as "only spring fever." These are evidences that Nature is not able, unaided, to throw off the corrupt atoms which weaken the vital forces. To regain health, Nature must be aided by a thorough blood-purifying medicine; and nothing else is so effective as which is sufficiently powerful to expel from the system even the taint of Hereditary Scrofula.

The medical profession indorse AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, and many attestations of the cures effected by it come from all parts of the world. It is, in the language of the Hon. Francis Jewett, ex-State Senator of Massachusetts and ex-Mayor of Lowell, "the only preparation that does real, lasting good."

PREPARED BY

Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Sold by all druggists: Price $1, six bottles for $5.

COSTIVENESS

affects seriously all the digestive and assimilative organs, including the Kidneys. When these organs are so affected, they fail to extract from the blood the uric acid, which, carried through the circulation, causes Rheumatism and Neuralgia.

The functions of the Liver are also affected by costiveness, causing Bilious Disorders.

Among the warning symptoms of Biliousness are Nausea, Dizziness, Headache, Weakness, Fever, Dimness of Vision, Yellowness of Skin, Pains in the Side, Back and Shoulders, Foul Mouth, Furred Tongue, Irregularity in the action of the Bowels, Vomiting, etc.

The Stomach suffers when the bowels are constipated, and Indigestion or follows: Fetid Breath, Gastric Pains, Headache, Acidity of the Stomach, Waterbrash, Nervousness, and Depression, are all evidences of the presence of this distressing malady. A Sure Relief for irregularities of the Stomach and all consequent diseases, will be found in the use of

AYER'S PILLS.

They stimulate the stomach, free the bowels, healthfully invigorate the torpid liver and kidneys, and by their cleansing, healing and tonic properties strengthen and purify the whole system, and restore it to a salutary and normal condition.

KNOX, the Hatter's world-renowned HATS.

NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM.

ADOPTED AT CINCINNATI, JUNE 24, 1880.

The Democrats of the United States in convention assembled declare:

First—We pledge ourselves anew to the constitutional doctrines and traditions of the Democracy, as illustrated by the teaching and example of a long line of Democratic statesmen and patriots, and embodied in the platform of the last National Convention of the party.

Second—Opposition to centralizationalism, and to that dangerous spirit of encroachment, which tends to consolidate the powers of all the departments in one, and thus to create, whatever may be the form of government, a real despotism. No sumptuary laws; separation of Church and State for the good of each; common schools fostered and protected.

Third—Home rule; honest money, consisting of gold and silver, and paper convertible into coin on demand; the strict maintenance of the public faith, State and National, and a tariff or revenue only.

Fourth—The subordination of the military to the civil power, and a genuine and thorough reform in the Civil Service.

Fifth—The right to a free ballot is a right preservative of all rights, and must and shall be maintained in every part of the United States.

Sixth—The existing Administration is the representative of conspiracy only, and its claim of right to surround the ballot boxes with troops and deputy marshals to intimidate and obstruct the electors, and the unprecedented use of the veto to maintain its corrupt and despotic power, insults the people and imperils their institutions.

Seventh—The great fraud of 1876 and 1877, by which upon a false count of the Electoral votes of two States the candidate defeated at the polls was declared to be the President, and for the first time in American history the will of the people was set aside under a threat of military violence, struck a deliberate blow at our system of representative government. The Democratic party, to preserve the country from the horrors of a civil war, submitted for a time in the form of a patriotic belief that the people would punish this crime in 1880. This issue precedes and dwarfs every other, and imposes a more sacred duty upon the people of the Union than ever before addressed the consciences of a nation of freemen.

Eighth—We execrate the course of this Administration in making places in the Civil Service a reward of political crime, and demand a reform by statute which will make it forever impossible for a defeated candidate to bribe his way to the seat of a usurper by billeting villainies upon the people.

Ninth—The resolution of S. J. Tilden not again to be a candidate for the exalted office to which he was elected by a majority of his countrymen, and from which he was excluded by the frauds of the Republican party, is received by the Democrats of the United States with deep sensibility; and they declare their confidence in his wisdom, patriotism, and integrity unshaken by the assaults of the common enemy, and they further assure him that he is followed into the retirement he has chosen for himself by the sympathy and respect of his fellow-citizens, who regard him as one who, by elevating the standards of the public service, and by adorning and purifying the same, merits the lasting gratitute of his country and his party.

Tenth—We demand free ships, and a living chance for American commerce upon the seas and upon the land; no discrimination in favor of transportation lines, corporations or monopolies.

Eleventh—An amendment of the Burlingame treaty; no more Chinese immigration, except for travel, education, and foreign commerce therein; carefully guarded.

Twelfth—Public money and public credit for public purposes solely, and the public lands for actual settlers.

Thirteenth—The Democratic party is the friend of labor and the laboring man, and pledges itself to protect him alike against the cormorants and the Commune.

KNOX, 194 FIFTH AVENUE, under Fifth Av. Hotel, 212 BROADWAY, corner Fulton Street, | WE HAVE AGENTS IN EVERY CITY.

Fourteenth—We congratulate the country upon the honesty and thrift of a Democratic Congress which has reduced the public expenditure $40,000,000 a year; upon the continuation of prosperity at home and the national honor abroad, and above all upon the promise of such a change in the administration of the Government as shall insure us genuine and lasting reform in every department of the public service.

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

ADOPTED AT CHICAGO, JUNE 5, 1880.

The Republican party, in National Convention assembled, at the end of twenty years since the federal government was first committed to its charge, submit to the people of the United States this brief report of its administration. It suppressed a rebellion which had armed nearly a million of men to subvert the national authority. It reconstructed the Union of the States with freedom, instead of slavery, as its corner-stone. It transformed four millions of human beings from the likeness of things to the rank of citizens. It relieved Congress from the infamous work of hunting fugitive slaves, and charged it to see that slavery does not exist. It has raised the value of our paper currency from 38 per cent. to the par of gold. It has restored upon a solid basis payment in coin for all the national obligations, and has given us a currency absolutely good and equal in every part of our extended country. It has lifted the credit of the nation from the point where six per cent. bonds sold at eighty-six cents, to that where four per cent. bonds are eagerly sought at a premium.

Under its administration railways have increased from 31,000 miles in 1860, to more than 82,000 miles in 1879. Our foreign trade has increased from $700,000,000 to $1,150,000,000 in the same time, and our exports which were $20,000,000 less than our imports in 1860, were $264,000,000 more than our imports in 1879. Without resorting to loans, it has, since the war closed, defrayed the ordinary expenses of the government, besides the accruing interest on the public debt, and has annually dispensed more than $30,000,000 for soldiers' pensions.

It has paid $888,000,000 of the public debt, and by refunding the balance at lower rates, has reduced the annual interest charge from nearly $151,000,000 to less than $89,000,000. All the industries in the country have revived, labor is in demand, wages have increased, and throughout the entire country there is evidence of a coming prosperity greater than we have ever enjoyed. Upon this record the Republican party ask for the continued confidence and support of the people, and this convention submits to their approval the following statements of the principles and purposes which will continue to guide and inspire its efforts:

First—We affirm that the work of the last twenty-one years has been such as to commend itself to the favor of the nation, and that the fruits of the costly victories which we have achieved, through immense difficulties, should be preserved; that the peace regained should be cherished; that the dissevered union now happily restored, should be perpetuated, and that the liberties secured to this generation should be transmitted undiminished to future generations; that the order established and the credit acquired should never be impaired; that the pensions promised should be extinguished by the full payment of every dollar thereof; that the reviving industries should be further promoted, and that the commerce, already so great, should be steadily encouraged.

Second—The Constitution of the United States is a supreme law and not a mere contract; out of confederated states is made a sovereign nation. Some powers are denied to the nation while others are denied to the States; but the boundary between the powers delegated and those reserved is to be determined by the national and not by the State tribunals.

Third—The work of popular education is one left to the care of the several States, but it is the duty of the National Government to aid that work to the extent of its constitutional duty.

The intelligence of the nation is but the aggregate of the intelligence in the several States, and the destiny of the nation must be guided, not by the genius of any one State, but by the average genius of all.

Digitized by

Fourth—The Constitution wisely forbids Congress to make any law respecting an establishment of religion, but it is idle to hope that the nation can be protected against the influence of sectarianism while each State is exposed to its domination. We therefore recommend that the Constitution be so amended as to lay the same prohibition upon the legislature of each State, and to forbid the appropriation of public funds to the support of sectarian schools.

Fifth—We affirm the belief avowed in 1876, that the duties levied for the purpose of revenue should so discriminate as to favor American labor; that no further grant of the public domain should be made to any railway or other corporation; that slavery having perished in the States, its twin barbarity, polygamy, must die in the Territories; that everywhere protection accorded to citizens of American birth must be secured to citizens by American adoption, and that we esteem it the duty of Congress to develop and improve our water courses and harbors, but insist that further subsidies to private persons or corporations must cease; that the obligations of the Republic to men who preserved its integrity in the hour of battle are undiminished by the lapse of the fifteen years since their final victory—to do them perpetual honor is, and shall forever be, the grateful privilege and sacred duty of the American people.

Sixth—Since the authority to regulate immigration and intercourse between the United States and foreign nations rests with Congress, or with the United States and its treaty-making powers, the Republican party, regarding the unrestricted immigration of the Chinese as an evil of great magnitude, invoke the exercise of those powers to restrain and limit that immigration by the enactment of such just, humane, and reasonable provisions as will produce that result.

Seventh—That the purity and patriotism which characterize the earlier career of Rutherford B. Hayes, in peace and war, and which guided the thoughts of our immediate predecessors to him for a Presidential candidate, have continued to inspire him in his career as Chief Executive, and that history will accord to his administration the honors which are due to an efficient, just, and courteous discharge of the public business, and will honor his interpositions between the people and proposed partisan laws.

Eighth—We charge upon the Democratic party the habitual sacrifice of patriotism and justice to a supreme and insatiable lust of office and patronage; that to obtain possession of the National and State governments and the control of place and position, they have obstructed all efforts to promote the purity and conserve the freedom of suffrage, and have devised fraudulent certifications and returns; have labored to unseat lawfully elected members of Congress to secure at all hazards the vote of a majority of the States in the House of Representatives; have endeavored to occupy by force and fraud the places of trust given to others by the people of Maine, and rescued by the courageous action of Maine's patriotic sons; have by methods vicious in principle and tyrannical in practice, attached partisan legislation to appropriation bills upon whose passage the very movements of the government depends, and have crushed the rights of individuals; have advocated the principles and sought the favor of rebellion against the nation, and have endeavored to obliterate the sacred memory of the war; and to overcome its inestimably valuable results of nationality, personal freedom, and individual equality. The equal, steady, and complete enforcement of the laws and the protection of all our citizens in the enjoyment of all privileges and immunities guaranteed by the constitution are the first duties of the nation. The dangers of a "solid" South can only be averted by a faithful performance of every promise which the nation has made to the citizen. The execution of the laws and the punishment of those who violate them are the only safe methods by which an enduring peace can be secured and genuine prosperity established throughout the South. Whatever promises the nation makes the nation must perform, and the nation cannot with safety relegate this duty to the States. The "solid" South must be divided by the peaceful agencies of the ballot, and all opinions must there find free expression, and to this end the honest vote must be protected against terrorism, violence or fraud. And we affirm it to be the duty and purpose of the Republican party to use every legitimate means to restore all the States of this Union to the most perfect harmony that may be practicable; and we submit it to the practical, sensible people of the United States to say whether it would not be dangerous to the dearest interests of our country at this time to surrender the administration of the national government to the party which seeks to overthrow the existing policy under which we are so prosperous, and thus bring distrust and confusion where there are now order, confidence and hope. The Republican party, adhering to the principles affirmed by its last National Convention of respect for the constitutional rules governing appointments to office, adopts the declaration of President Hayes, that the reform in the Civil Service shall be thorough, radical and complete. To that end it demands the co-operation of the legislature with the executive departments of the government, and that Congress shall so legislate that fitness ascertained by proper, practical tests, shall admit to the public service. That the tenure of administrative offices (except those through which the distinctive policy of the party in power shall be carried out) shall be permanent during good behavior, and that the power of removal for cause, with due responsibility for the good conduct of subordinates, shall accompany the power of appointment.

DEMOCRATIC STATE PLATFORM.

The Democracy of New York reaffirm the platform adopted at its last State Convention, which has received the approval of the people, as shown by a majority of nearly 200,000 at the last election; and they especially denounce the proposition that the people should be taxed to raise a surplus fund for the Federal Government to distribute among the States.

We claim with pride and satisfaction that every pledge therein made has been in good faith redeemed.

Valuable reforms have been wrought.

Useless offices have been abolished.

The Civil Service has been freed from the debasing and injurious influences of partisan manipulation.

The freedom and purity of primaries have been secured.

Political assessments have been abolished.

Receivership abuses have been corrected.

The principle of local self-government has been adhered to.

The efficiency of the National Guard has been increased.

Taxation for the support of Government has been reduced.

A State Bureau of Labor Statistics has been established.

The rights of workingmen have been further protected, and the injurious competition of convict labor has been curtailed.

Business methods have become the rule in the management of State affairs.

On the record thus made, and to which it will steadfastly adhere, the Democratic party asked a renewed award of the confidence of the people.

We invite, with reason, all friends of improved State administration, irrespective of party, to join with the Democracy in preserving and perfecting the reforms in progress, and in extending them to all branches of the State service.

We heartily indorse Governor Cleveland's administration. It justifies the great vote which elected him; he has deservedly won the affection of the people by his industry, firmness, intelligence and aggressive honesty; the results make his Administration one of the best the State ever had.

REPUBLICAN STATE PLATFORM.

The Republicans of New York, in State Convention, hold that the record of the Republican party in the past affords the best guaranty of the party's purpose and acts in the future. The preservation of the nation's life, the extension of freedom and equal rights to embrace all, the keeping of the national faith, the promotion of the national credit, the payment of the public debt, the reduction of taxation, the protection of home industries, the elevation of labor, the purification of the Civil Service, and, in fine, the administrative policy based upon wise legislation that has given unexampled prosperity to the country and promoted the happiness and progress of the people, an achievement that commends the Republican party to continued popular favor. We rejoice in the wisdom and success of President Arthur's administration of the affairs of the Government, which commands universal respect throughout the country and has the confidence and support of the Republicans of New York.

Our Senators and Representatives in Congress have our thanks for their part in the reduction of internal taxation to the extent of $40,000,000. While the national credit is kept unsullied, the public debt is being steadily reduced and the defenders of the national life are justly the recipients of a grateful republic's bounty.

We approve honesty and fidelity in governmental expenditures, the reduction of interest on the public debt and the payment of the debt as rapidly as may be without unduly burdening the people, the bringing of taxation within the lowest practicable limits, the reduction of the force of public officials to the lowest number consistent with the requirements of the service, and the adoption of every practical means that will diminish the burdens of taxation.

We rejoice in the successful inauguration of Civil Service Reform—a result of Republican agitation and national progress—and insist that the work thus auspiciously begun shall be prosecuted to complete success.

We favor a system of tariff laws under which, while revenue for the Government is provided, American producers are justly protected, American labor elevated, and home markets secured to home products for the advantage alike of the producer and the laborer.

We favor the removal of all unjust burdens upon American shipping and the awarding of ocean mail contracts to the lowest bidders among owners of American vessels after open competition.

We favor the establishment by Congress of a National Bureau for Labor Statistics, with the object of promoting the industrial, moral and sanitary conditions of the people.

We favor the surrounding of the primary meetings, as well as the popular election, with the security of honesty and purity as indispensable requisites to correct political action.

The tendency to create monopolies requires checking by adequate legislation. Unjust discrimination in transportation should be prohibited, and violation of chartered privileges justifies the intervention of the State to correct the evils thus engendered. Taxation should be equalized and its burdens be borne proportionately by real and personal property, and the policy of the taxation of corporations is approved on the test of its practical operation.

The free canal policy of this State has in practice justified its adoption by restoring the canals to their usefulness, by bringing to the State increased commerce, and by assuring to it the continuance of commercial supremacy.

We approve the plan of party reorganization in the City of New York, and recommend that it be persisted in to the end, so that it shall embrace all Republicans in the city on equal terms and footing.

We believe in the wisdom of the people in deciding all questions pertaining to the public welfare, and would accede to the desire of a large body of our citizens to submit to the voters of the State a constitutional amendment in regard to the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors.

Democratic incapacity and inability to administer government are demonstrated in the conduct of the late Legislature, whose two-thirds Democratic majority was false to its pledges and to public interests. The reckless partisanship and insatiate greed for office of the Democratic party brought it into public contempt. Its special legislation to make places for partisans and its increase of the salary list to reward favorites brought upon it public execration. Its utter disregard of important public interests and its increase of State taxation are offenses not to be endured. The course pursued in its cowardly attempt to evade the responsibility of affirmative action on the convict labor question, and to shirk the issue directly presented in the platform of the last Democratic State Convention, has earned the distrust of the taxpayers and the contempt of the workingman.

It is the duty of the people to secure the Legislature from the control of an incompetent and faithless party and from being the sport of place-hunters and spoilsmen, and to secure a continuance of economical, efficient and satisfactory administration of State Departments by the election of the ticket for State officers this day placed in nomination.

"KNOX, the Hatter," IMPORTER OF ENGLISH HATS, "Martin's," Umbrellas, Dent's Gloves.

KNOX, the Hatter's world-renowned HATS.

UNITED STATES POSTAL REGULATIONS.

Compiled from official information furnished by the New York Post-office.

FIRST-CLASS MAIL MATTER.—Letters.—This class includes letters and anything of which the Postmaster cannot ascertain the contents without destroying the wrapper, or anything unsealed which may be wholly or partly in writing—except manuscript for publication accompanied by proof-sheets. Postage, 2 cents each half ounce, or for each fraction above half an ounce. On local or drop letters, at free-delivery offices, 2 cents. At offices where no free delivery by carriers, 1 cent.

Registered letters, 10 cents in addition to the proper postage.

SECOND CLASS.—Regular Publications.—This class includes all newspapers, periodicals, or matter exclusively in print and regularly issued at stated periods from a known office of publication or news agency. Postage, 2 cents a pound or fraction thereof.

THIRD CLASS.—Miscellaneous Printed Matter.—Mailable matter of the third class includes printed books, transient newspapers and periodicals, circulars, and other matter wholly in print (not of the second class), proof-sheets, corrected proof-sheets, and manuscript copy accompanying the same, and postage shall be paid at the rate of 1 cent for each two ounces or fractional part thereof, and shall fully be prepaid by postage stamps affixed to said matter.

Upon matter of the third-class, or upon the wrapper inclosing the same, the sender may write his own name or address thereon, with the word "from" above and preceding the same, and in either case may make simple marks intended to design a word or passage of the text to which it is desired to call attention. Address, date and signature may be written in printed circulars; but articles of merchandise sent by dealers or manufacturers are subject to fourth-class rates, although bearing printing—such as playing-cards, labels, fancy cards, etc.

All packages of matter of the third-class must be so wrapped or enveloped that their contents may be readily and thoroughly examined by postmasters without destroying the wrappers.

Packages of matter of this class may weigh not exceeding four pounds, except in case of single books weighing in excess of that amount.

FOURTH CLASS.—Merchandise, Samples, etc.—Mailable matter of the fourth class includes all matter not embraced in the first, second and third class, which is not in its form or nature liable to destroy, deface, or otherwise damage the contents of the mail-bag, or harm the person of any one engaged in the postal service.

All matter of the fourth class is subject to a postage-charge at the rate of 1 cent an ounce or fraction thereof, to be prepaid by stamps affixed.

Upon any package of matter of the fourth class the sender may write or print his own name and address, preceded by the word "from," and there may also be written or printed the number and names of the articles inclosed; and the sender thereof may write upon, or attach to any such article, by tag or label, a single mark, number, name or letter, for the purpose of identification only.

Letters can be forwarded from one post-office to another (as in the case of removal, etc.) at the request of the party addressed, without extra charge. "Return letters" are also sent back to the writers free, on expiration of time named in request.

All letters not claimed in one month from their receipt, or returned to writer, are forwarded to the Dead Letter Office.

No packages forwarded in mails weighing over four pounds, except single books weighing in excess thereof.

FOREIGN POSTAGE.—Letters at 5 cents per half ounce, prepayment optional postal cards, 2 cents each), and printed matter and samples, 1 cent per two ounces to all countries belonging to the "Universal Postal Union," which embraces all parts of Europe and the colonies of the principal European powers; also Mexico, Cuba, Ecuador, Brazil, Uruguay, Venezuela, Argentine Republic, Chili, Peru, Japan, Hong Kong, Egypt, Liberia, Hayti, Newfoundland, Canada, and other places of less importance. (Postage to Canada is 2 cents per half ounce for letters, and 1 cent per two ounces for printed matter).

VALUE OF PROPERTY OWNED BY THE CITY OF NEW YORK.

In 1871 an appraisement was made by Messrs. Bleecker, Palmer and Muller of the real estate belonging to the City, but the report was not printed.

The following is a summary of that appraisement:

The Central Park, containing 10,000 lots, at $10,000 each	$100,000,000
Twenty smaller parks and places	33,000,000
Ten public markets	5,000,000
City lots not in public use	4,000,000
Water lots and Brooklyn lots	1,500,000
Seventy Piers, North and East rivers	5,000,000
Croton Aqueduct property	100,000,000
Fire Department—Land, buildings and apparatus	3,500,000
Police Stations, etc	1,500,000
Public Education—Land and buildings	6,000,000
Courts, prisons and the like, and islands in the East river	7,500,000
Total	$267,000,000

No material changes have been made in the property of the city, except improvements of parks, docks, wharves, expenditures for Brooklyn Bridge, New County Court-house and other public buildings, amounting to many millions of dollars. The depreciation in value of real estate would, of course, somewhat reduce an appraisement at this time.

NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM.

ADOPTED AT CHICAGO, JULY 10, 1884.

The Democratic Party of the Union, through its representatives in National Convention assembled, recognizes that, as the nation grows older, new issues are born of time and progress, and old issues perish. But the fundamental principles of the Democracy, approved by the united voice of the people, remain, and will ever remain, as the best and only security for the continuance of free government. The preservation of personal rights; the equality of all citizens before the law; the reserved rights of the States; and the supremacy of the Federal Government within the limits of the Constitution, will ever form the true basis of our liberties, and can never be surrendered without destroying that balance of rights and powers which enables a continent to be developed in peace, and social order to be maintained by means of local self-government.

But it is indispensable for the practical application and enforcement of these fundamental principles that the government should not always be controlled by one political party. Frequent change of administration is as necessary as constant recurrence to popular will. Otherwise abuses grow, and the government, instead of being carried on for the general welfare, becomes an instrumentality for imposing heavy burdens on the many who are governed, for the benefit of the few who govern. Public servants thus become arbitrary rulers.

This is now the condition of the country. Hence a change is demanded. The Republican Party, so far as principle is concerned, is a reminiscence; in practice, it is an organization for enriching those who control its machinery. The frauds and jobbery which have been brought to light in every department of the government are sufficient to have called for reform within the Republican Party; yet those in authority, made reckless by the long possession of power, have succumbed to its corrupting influence, and have placed in nomination a ticket against which the independent portion of the party are in open revolt.

Therefore a change is demanded. Such a change was alike necessary in 1876, but the will of the people was then defeated by a fraud which can never be forgotten nor condoned. Again, in 1880, the change demanded by the people was defeated by the lavish use of money contributed by unscrupulous contractors and shameless jobbers, who had bargained for unlawful profits, or for high office.

The Republican Party, during its legal, its stolen, and its bought tenures of power, has speedily decayed in moral character and political capacity.

Its platform promises are now a list of its past failures.

It demands the restoration of our navy. It has squandered hundreds of millions to create a navy that does not exist.

It calls upon Congress to remove the burdens under which American shipping has been depressed. It imposed and has continued those burdens.

It professes the policy of reserving the public lands for small holdings by actual settlers. It has given away the people's heritage till now a few railroads and non-resident aliens, individual and corporate, possess a larger area than that of all our farms between the two seas.

It professes a preference for free institutions. It organized and tried to legalize a control of State elections by Federal troops.

It professes a desire to elevate labor. It has subjected American workingmen to the competition of convict and imported contract labor.

It professes gratitude to all who were disabled or died in the war, leaving widows and orphans. It left to a Democratic House of Representatives the first effort to equalize both bounties and pensions.

It proffers a pledge to correct the irregularities of our tariff. It created and has continued them. Its own Tariff Commission confessed the need of more than twenty per cent reduction. Its Congress gave a reduction of less than four per cent.

It professes the protection of American manufactures. It has subjected them to an increasing flood of manufactured goods, and a hopeless competition with manufacturing nations, not one of which taxes raw materials.

It professes to protect all American industries. It has impoverished many to subsidize a few.

It professes the protection of American labor. It has depleted the returns of American agriculture—an industry followed by half our people.

It professes the equality of all men before the law. Attempting to fix the status of colored citizens, the acts of its Congress was overset by the decisions of its courts.

It "accepts anew the duty of leading in the work of progress and reform." Its caught criminals are permitted to escape through contrived delays of actual connivance in the prosecution. Honey-combed with corruption, out-breaking exposures no longer shock its moral sense. Its honest members, its independent journals no longer maintain a successful contest for authority in its counsels, or a veto upon bad nominations.

That change is necessary is proved by an existing surplus of more than $100,000,000, which has yearly been collected from a suffering people. Unnecessary taxation is unjust taxation. We denounce the Republican Party for having failed to relieve the people from crushing war taxes which have paralyzed business, crippled industry and deprived labor of employment and of just reward.

The Democracy pledges itself to purify the administration from corruption, to restore economy, to revive respect for law, and to reduce taxation to the lowest limit consistent with due regard to the preservation of the faith of the nation to its creditors and pensioners.

Knowing full well, however, that legislation affecting the occupations of the people should be cautious and conservative in method, not in advance of public opinion, but responsive to its demands, the Democratic Party is pledged to revise the tariff in a spirit of fairness to all interests.

But in making reduction in taxes, it is not proposed to injure any domestic industries, but rather to promote their healthy growth. From the foundation of this Government taxes collected at the Custom-house have been the chief source of Federal revenue. Such they must continue to be. Moreover, many industries have come to rely upon legislation for successful continuance, so that any change of law must be at every step regardful of the labor and capital thus involved. The process of reform must be subject in the execution of this plain dictate of justice.

All taxation shall be limited to the requirements of economical government. The necessary reduction in taxation can, and must, be effected without depriving American labor of the ability to compete successfully with foreign labor, and without imposing lower rates of duty than will be ample to cover any increased cost of production which may exist in consequence of the higher rate of wages prevailing in this country.

Sufficient revenue to pay all the expenses of the Federal Government, economically administered, including pensions, interest and principal of the public debt, can be got under our present system of taxation, from Custom-house taxes on fewer imported articles, bearing heaviest on articles of luxury, and bearing lightest on articles of necessity.

We therefore denounce the abuses of the existing tariff, and, subject to the preceding limitations, we demand that Federal taxation shall be exclusively for public purposes, and shall not exceed the needs of the Government economically administered.

The system of direct taxation known as "internal revenue," is a war tax, and so long as the law continues the money derived therefrom should be sacredly devoted to the relief of the people from the remaining burdens of the war and be made a fund to defray the expenses of the care and comfort of worthy soldiers disabled in the line of duty in the wars of the Republic, and for the payment of such pensions as Congress may from time to time grant to such soldiers, a like fund for the sailors having been already provided, and any surplus should be paid into the Treasury.

We favor an American continental policy based upon more intimate commercial and political relations with the fifteen sister republics of North, Central and South America, but entangling alliances with none.

We believe in honest money, the gold and silver coinage of the Constitution, and a circulating medium convertible into such money without loss.

Asserting the equality of all men before the law, we hold that it is the duty of the Government, in its dealings with the people, to mete out equal and exact justice to all citizens of whatever nativity, race, color or persuasion—religious or political.

We believe in a free ballot and a fair count, and we recall to the memory of the people the noble struggle of the Democrats in the Forty-fifth and Forty-sixth Congresses, by which a reluctant Republican opposition was compelled to assent to legislation making everywhere illegal the presence of troops at the polls, as the conclusive proof that a Democratic administration will preserve liberty with order.

The selection of Federal officers for the Territory should be restricted to citizens previously resident therein.

We oppose sumptuary laws which vex the citizen and interfere with individual liberty; we favor honest civil service reform, and the compensation of all United States officers by fixed salaries; the separation of church and state, and the diffusion of free education by common schools, so that every child in the land may be taught the rights and duties of citizenship.

While we favor all legislation that will tend to the equitable distribution of property, to the prevention of monopoly, and to the strict enforcement of individual rights against corporate abuses, we hold that the welfare of society depends upon a scrupulous regard for the rights of property as defined by law.

We believe that labor is best rewarded where it is freest and most enlightened. It should therefore be fostered and cherished. We favor the repeal of all laws restricting the free action of labor, and the enactment of laws by which labor organizations may be incorporated, and of all such legislation as will tend to enlighten the people as to the true relations of capital and labor.

We believe that the public lands ought, as far as possible, be kept as homesteads for actual settlers; that all unearned lands heretofore improvidently granted to railroad corporations by the action of the Republican Party should be restored to the public domain, and that no more grants of land shall be made to corporations or be allowed to fall into the ownership of alien absentees.

We are opposed to all propositions which, upon any pretext, would convert the general Government into a machine for collecting taxes to be distributed among the States or the citizens thereof.

In reaffirming the declaration of the Democratic platform of 1856, that "the liberal principles embodied by Jefferson in the Declaration of Independence, and sanctioned by the Constitution, which makes ours the land of liberty and the asylum of the oppressed of every nation, have ever been cardinal principles in the Democratic faith," we nevertheless do not sanction the importation of foreign labor, or the admission of servile races, unfitted by habits, training, religion, or kindred for absorption into the great body of our people, or for the citizenship which our laws confer. American civilization demands that against the immigration or importation of Mongolians to these shores our gates be closed

The Democratic Party insists that it is the duty of this government to protect, with equal fidelity and vigilance, the rights of its citizens, native and naturalized, at home and abroad, and to the end that this protection may be assured, United States papers of naturalization, issued by courts of competent jurisdiction, must be respected by the executive and legislative departments of our own Government, and by all foreign powers.

It is an imperative duty of this Government to efficiently protect all the rights of persons and property of every American citizen in foreign lands, and demand and enforce full reparation for any invasion thereof.

An American citizen is only responsible to his own Government for any act done in his own country, or under her flag, and can only be tried therefor on her own soil and according to her own laws, and no power exists in this Government to expatriate an American citizen to be tried in any foreign land for any such act.

This country has never had a well-defined and executed foreign policy save under Democratic administration; that policy has ever been, in regard to foreign nations, so long as they do not act detrimental to the interests of the country or hurtful to our citizens, to let them alone; that as the result of this policy we recall the acquisition of Louisiana, Florida, California, and of the adjacent Mexican territory by purchase alone; and contrast these grand acquisitions of Democratic statesmanship with the purchase of Alaska, the sole fruit of a Republican administration of nearly a quarter of a century.

The Federal Government should care for and improve the Mississippi river and other great waterways of the Republic, so as to secure for the interior States easy and cheap transportation to tide-water.

Under a long period of Democratic rule and policy our merchant marine was fast overtaking and on the point of outstripping that of Great Britain.

Under twenty years of Republican rule and policy our commerce has been left to British bottoms, and almost has the American flag been swept off the high seas.

Instead of the Republican Party's British policy we demand for the people of the United States, an American policy.

Under Democratic rule and policy our merchants and sailors, flying the stars and stripes in every port, successfully searched out a market for the varied products of American industry.

Under a quarter of a century of Republican rule and policy, despite our manifest advantages over all other nations in high-paid labor, favorable climates and teeming soils; despite freedom of trade among all these United States; despite their population by the foremost races of men and an annual immigration of the young, thrifty and adventurous of all nations; despite our freedom here from the inherited burdens of life and industry in old-world monarchies—their costly war navies, their vast tax-consuming, non-producing standing armies; despite their twenty years of peace—that Republican rule and policy have managed to surrender to Great Britain, along with our commerce, the control of the markets of the world.

Instead of the Republican Party's British policy, we demand, in behalf of the American Democracy, an American policy.

Instead of the Republican Party's discredited scheme and false pretense of friendship for American labor, expressed by imposing taxes, we demand, in behalf of the Democracy, freedom for American labor by reducing taxes to the end that these United States may compete with unhindered powers for the primacy among nations in all the arts of peace and fruits of liberty.

With profound regret we have been apprised by the venerable statesman through whose person was struck that blow at the vital principle of republics (acquiesence in the will of the majority), that he cannot permit us again to place in his hands the leadership of the Democratic hosts, for the reason that the achievement of reform in the administration of the Federal Government is an undertaking now too heavy for his age and failing strength.

Rejoicing that his life has been prolonged until the general judgment of our fellow-countrymen is united in the wish that that wrong were righted in his person, for the Democracy of the United States, we offer to him in his withdrawal from public cares, not only our respectful sympathy and esteem, but also that best homage of freemen, the pledge of our devotion to the principles and the cause now inseparable in the history of this Republic from the labors and the name of Samuel J. Tilden.

With this statement of the hopes, principles and purposes of the Democratic Party, the great issue of reform and change in Administration is submitted to the people in calm confidence, that the popular voice will pronounce in favor of new men, and new and more favorable conditions for the growth of industry, the extension of trade, the employment and due reward of labor and of capital, and the general welfare of the whole country.

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

ADOPTED AT CHICAGO, JUNE 5, 1884.

The Republicans of the United States, in Convention assembled, renew their allegiance to the principles upon which they have triumphed in six successive Presidential elections, and congratulate the American people on the attainment of so many results in legislation and administration by which the Republican Party has, after saving the Union, done so much to render its institutions just, equal, and beneficent—the safeguard of liberty and the embodiment of the best thought and highest purposes of our citizens. The Republican Party has gained its strength by quick and faithful response to the demands of the people for the freedom and the equality of all men; for a united nation assuring the rights of all citizens; for the elevation of labor; for an honest currency; for purity in legislation, and for integrity and accountability in all departments of the Government; and it accepts anew the duty of leading in the work of progress and reform.

We lament the death of President Garfield, whose sound statesmanship, long conspicuous in Congress, gave promise of a strong and successful administration, a promise fully realized during the short period of his office as President of the United States. His distinguished success in war and in peace has endeared him to the hearts of the American people.

In the administration of President Arthur we recognize a wise, conservative, and patriotic policy, under which the country has been blessed with remarkable prosperity, and we believe his eminent services are entitled to and will receive the hearty approval of every citizen. It is the first duty of a good government to protect the rights and promote the interests of its own people; the largest diversity of industry is most productive of general prosperity and of the comfort and independence of the people.

We, therefore, demand that the imposition of duties on foreign imports shall be made not for "revenue only," but that, in raising the requisite revenues for the Government, such duties shall be so levied as to afford security to our diversified industries and protection to the rights and wages of the laborer, to the end that active and intelligent labor, as well as capital, may have its just reward, and the laboring man his full share in the national prosperity.

Agai st the so-called economical system of the Democratic Party, which would degrade our labor to the foreign standard, we enter our earnest protest; the Democratic Party has failed completely to relieve the people of the burden of unnecessary taxation by a wise reduction of the surplus.

The Republican Party pledges itself to correct the inequalities of the tariff and to reduce the surplus, not by the vicious and indiscriminate process of horizontal reduction, but by such methods as will relieve the tax-payer without injuring the laborer or the great productive interests of the country.

We recognize the importance of sheep husbandry in the United States, the serious depression which it is now experiencing and the danger threatening its future prosperity; and we, therefore, respect the demands of the representatives of this important agricultural interest for a readjustment of duty upon foreign wool in order that such industry shall have full and adequate protection.

We have always recommended the best money known to the civilized world, and we urge that an effort be made to unite all commercial nations in the establishment of the international standard, which shall fix for all the relative value of gold and silver coinage.

The regulation of commerce with foreign nations and between the States is one of the most important prerogatives of the general Government, and the Republican Party distinctly announces its purposes to support such legislation as will fully and efficiently carry out the constitutional power of Congress over inter-state commerce. The principle of the public regulation of railway corporations is a wise and salutary one for the protection of all classes of the people, and we favor legislation that shall prevent unjust discrimination and excessive charges for transportation, and that shall secure to the people and to the railways alike the fair and equal protection of the laws.

We favor the establishment of a national bureau of labor, the enforcement of the eight-hour law, and a wise and judicious system of general education by adequate appropria.ion from the national revenues wherever the same is needed.

We believe that everywhere the protection to a citizen of American birth must be secured to citizens by American adoption, and we favor the settlement of national differences by international arbitration.

The Republican Party, having its birth in a hatred of slave labor, and in a desire that all men may be free and equal, is unalterably opposed to placing our workingmen in competition with any form of servile labor, whether at home or abroad. In this spirit we denounce the importation of contract labor, whether from Europe or Asia, as an offense against the spirit of American institutions, and we pledge ourselves to sustain the present law restricting Chinese immigration, and to provide such further legislation as is necessary to carry out its purposes.

The reform of the civil service, auspiciously begun under Republican administration, should be completed by the further extension of the reform system already established by law—to all the grades of the service to which it is applicable. The spirit and purpose of the reform should be observed in all executive appointments, and all laws at varianoe with the objects of existing reform legislation should be repealed, to the end that the dangers to free institutions which lurk in the power of official patronage may be wisely and effectively avoided.

The public lands are a heritage of the people of the United States, and should be reserved as far as possible for small holdings by actual settlers. We are opposed to the acquisition of large tracts of these lands by corporations or individuals, especially where such holdings are in the hands of non-resident aliens, and we will endeavor to obtain such legislation as will tend to correct this evil.

Digitized by Google

We demand of Congress the speedy forfeiture of all land grants which have lapsed by reason of non-compliance with acts of incorporation, in all cases where there has been no attempt in good faith to perform the conditions of such grants.

The grateful thanks of the American people are due to the Union soldiers and sailors of the late war, and the Republican Party stands pledged to suitable pensions to all who were disabled and for the widows and orphans of those who died in the war. The Republican Party pledges itself to the repeal of the limitation contained in the Arrears act of 1879, so that all invalid soldiers shall share alike, and their pensions shall begin with the date of disability or discharge and not with the date of application.

The Republican Party favors a policy which shall keep us from entangling alliances with foreign nations, and which shall give the right to expect that foreign nations shall refrain from meddling in America, and the policy which seeks peace can trade with all powers, but especially with those of the Western Hemisphere.

We demand the restoration of our navy to its old-time strength and efficiency, that it may in any sea protect the rights of American citizens and the interests of American commerce, and we call upon Congress to remove the burdens under which American shipping has been depressed, so that it may again be true that we have a commerce which leaves no sea unexplored, and a navy which takes no law from superior force.

Resolved, That appointments by the President to offices in the Territories should be made from the bona fide citizens and residents of the Territories wherein they are to serve.

Resolved, That it is the duty of Congress to enact such laws as shall promptly and effectually suppress the system of polygamy within our territory and divorce the political from the ecclesiastical power of the so-called Mormon Church, and that the law so enacted should be rigidly enforced by the civil authorities, if possible, and by the military if need be.

The people of the United States in their organized capacity constitute a Nation and not a mere confederacy of States. The National Government is supreme within the sphere of its national duty, but the States have reserved rights which should be faithfully maintained; each should be guarded with jealous care so that the harmony of our system of government may be preserved, and the Union kept inviolate.

The perpetuity of our institutions rests upon the maintenance of a free ballot, an honest count, and a correct return.

We denounce the fraud and violence practised by the Democratic Party in Southern States, by which the will of the voter is defeated, as dangerous to the preservation of free institutions, and we solemnly arraign the Democratic Party as being the guilty recipient of the fruit of such fraud and violence.

We extend to the Republicans of the South, regardless of their former party affiliations, our cordial sympathy, and pledge them our most earnest efforts to promote the passage of such legislation as will secure to every citizen, of whatever race and color, the full and complete recognition, possession, and exercise of all civil and political rights.

GREENBACK NATIONAL PLATFORM.

ADOPTED AT INDIANAPOLIS, May 28, 1884.

Eight years ago our young party met in this city for the first time, and proclaimed to the world its immortal principles, and placed before the American people as a Presidential candidate, that great philanthropist and spotless statesman, Peter Cooper. Since that convention our party has organized all over the Union, and through discussion and agitation has been educating the people to a sense of their rights and duties to themselves and their country. These labors have accomplished wonders. We now have a great, harmonious party, and thousands who believe in our principles in the ranks of other parties.

"We point with pride to our history." We forced the remonetization of the silver dollar; prevented the refunding of the public debt into long-time bonds; secured the payment of the bonds, until the "best banking system the world ever saw" for robbing the producer now totters because of its contracting foundation; we have stopped the squandering of our public domain upon corporations: we have stopped the wholesale destruction of the greenback currency, and secured a decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, establishing forever the right of the people to issue their own money.

Notwithstanding all this, never in our history have the banks, land-grant railroads, and other monopolies, been more insolent in their demands for further privileges—still more class legislation. In this emergency the dominant parties are arrayed against the people and are the abject tools of the corporate monopolies.

In the last Congress they repealed over $12,000,000 of annual taxes for the banks, throwing the burden upon the people to pay or pay interest thereon.

Both old parties in the present Congress vie with each other in their efforts to further repeal taxes in order to stop the payment of the public debt, and save the banks whose charters they have renewed for twenty years. Notwithstanding the distress of business, the shrinkage of wages and panic, they persist in locking up on various pretexts, $400,000,000 of money, every dollar of which the people pay interest upon and need, and most of which should be promptly applied to pay bonds now payable.

The old parties are united—as they cannot agree what taxes to repeal—in efforts to squander the income of the Government upon every pretext rather than pay the debt.

A bill has already passed the United States Senate making the banks a present of over $50,000,000 more of the people's money in order to enable them to levy a still greater burden of interest-taxes.

A joint effort is being made by the old party leaders to overthrow the sovereign constitutional power of the people to control their own financial affairs and issue their own money, in order to forever enslave the masses to bankers and other business. The House of Representatives has passed bills reclaiming nearly 100,000,000 acres of lands granted to and forfeited by railroad companies. These bills have gone to the Senate, a body composed largely of aristocratic millionaires who, according to their own party papers, generally purchase their elections in order to protect great monopolies which they represent. This body has thus far defied the people and the House, and refuses to act upon these bills in the interest of the people.

Therefore we, the National Party of the United States, in national convention assembled this 29th day of May, A. D. 1884, declare:

1. That we hold the late decision of the Supreme Court on the legal-tender question to be a full vindication of the theory which our party has always advocated on the right and authority of Congress over the issue of legal tender notes, and we hereby pledge ourselves to uphold said decision and to defend the Constitution against alterations or amendments intended to deprive the people of any rights or privileges conferred by that instrument. We demand the issue of such money in sufficient quantities to supply the actual demand of trade and commerce, in accordance with the increase of population and the development of our industries. We demand the substitution of greenbacks for national bank notes and the prompt payment of the public debt. We want that money which saved our country in time of war, and which has given it prosperity and happiness in peace. We condemn the retirement of the fractional currency and the small denomination of greenbacks and demand their restoration. We demand the issue of the hoards of money now locked up in the United States Treasury, by applying them to the payment of the public debt now due.

2. We denounce as dangerous to our Republican institutions, those methods and policies of the Democratic and Republican parties which have sanctioned or permitted the establishment of land, railroad, money and other gigantic corporate monopolies; and we demand such governmental action as may be necessary to take from such monopolies the powers they have so corruptly and unjustly usurped and restore them to the people, to whom they belong.

3. The public lands being the natural inheritance of the people, we denounce that policy which has granted to corporations vast tracts of land, and we demand that immediate and vigorous measures be taken to reclaim from such corporations, for the people's use and benefit, all such land grants as have been forfeited by reason of nonfulfillment of contract, or that may have been wrongfully acquired by corrupt legislation, and that such reclaimed lands and other public domain be henceforth held as a sacred trust, to be granted only to actual settlers in limited quantities; and we also demand that the alien ownership of land, individual or corporate, shall be prohibited.

4. We demand congressional regulation of inter-State commerce. We denounce "pooling," stock-watering and discrimination in rates and charges, and demand that Congress shall correct these abuses, even if necessary, by the construction of national railroads. We also demand the establishment of a government postal telegraph system.

5. All private property, all forms of money and obligations to pay money, should bear their just proportion of the public taxes. We demand a graduated income tax.

6. We demand the amelioration of the condition of labor by enforcing the sanitary laws in industrial establishments, by the abolition of the convict labor system, by a rigid inspection of mines and factories, by a reduction of the hours of labor in industrial establishments, by fostering educational institutions and by abolishing child labor.

7. We condemn all importations of contracted labor, made with a view reducing to starvation wages the workingmen of this country, and demand laws for its prevention.

8. We insist upon a constitutional amendment reducing the terms of United States Senators.

9. We demand such rules for the government of Congress as shall place all representatives of the people upon an equal footing, and take away from committees a veto power greater than that of the President.

10. The question as to the amount of duties to be levied upon various articles of import has been agitated and quarreled over and has divided communities for nearly a hundred years. It is not now and never will be settled unless by the abolition of indirect taxation. It is a convenient issue—always raised when the people are excited over abuses in their midst. While we favor a wise revision of the tariff laws, with a view to raising a revenue from luxuries rather than necessaries, we insist that as an economic question its importance is insignificant as compared with financial issues; for whereas we have suffered our worst panics under low and also under high tariff, we have never suffered from a panic nor seen our factories and workshops closed while the volume of money in circulation was adequate to the needs of commerce. Give our farmers and manufacturers money as cheap as you now give it to our bankers, and they can pay high wages to labor, and compete with all the world.

11. For the purpose of testing the sense of the people upon the subject, we are in favor of submitting to a vote of the people an amendment to the Constitution in favor of suffrage regardless of sex, and also on the subject of the liquor traffic.

12. All disabled soldiers of the late war should be equitably pensioned, and we denounce the policy of keeping a small army of office-holders whose only business is to prevent, on technical grounds, deserving soldiers from obtaining justice from the Government they helped to save.

13. As our name indicates, we are a National Party, knowing no East, no West, no North, no South. Having no sectional prejudices, we can properly place in nomination for the high offices of State as candidates, men from any section of the Union.

14. We appeal to all people who believe in our principles to aid us by voice, pen and votes.

NATIONAL PROHIBITION PLATFORM.

ADOPTED AT PITTSBURGH, PA., JULY 23, 1884.

First—The Prohibition Home Protection Party, in national convention assembled, acknowledge Almighty God as the rightful sovereign of all men, from whom the first powers of government are derived, to whose laws human enactments should conform, and that peace, prosperity and happiness only can come to the people when their laws of the National and State Government are in accord with the divine will.

Second—That the importation, manufacture, supply, and sale of alcoholic beverages, created and maintained by the laws of the National and State Governments, during the entire history of such laws, is everywhere shown to be the promoting cause of intemperance, with resulting crime and pauperism, making large demands upon public and private charity, imposing large and unjust taxation and public burdens for penal and sheltering institutions upon thrift, industry, manufactures, and commerce, endangering the public peace, desecration of the Sabbath, corrupting our politics, legislation and administration of the laws, shortening lives, impairing health, and diminishing productive industry, causing education to be neglected and despised, nullifying the teachings of the Bible, the Church and the school, the standards and guides of our fathers and their children in the founding and growth under God of our widely-extended country, and while imperiling the perpetuity of our civil and religious liberty, are baleful fruits by which we know that these laws are alike contrary to God's laws and contravene our happiness, and we call upon our fellow-citziens to aid in the repeal of these laws, and the legal suppression of this baneful liquor traffic.

Everything NEEDED IN THE HOUSEHOLD OR PERSONAL WEAR CAN BE FOUND THERE.

The fact that during the twenty-four years in which the Republican Party has controlled the General Government and that of many of the States, no effort has been made to change this policy—Territories have been created from the National domain and governments for them established, and States from them admitted into the Union, in no instance in either of which has this traffic been forbidden or the people of these Territories or States been permitted to prohibit.

That there are now over two hundred thousand distilleries, breweries, wholesale and retail dealers in these drinks, holding certificates and claiming the authority of Government for the continuation of a business which is so destructive to the moral and material welfare of the people, together with the fact that they have turned a deaf ear to remonstrance and petition for the correction of this abuse of civil government, is conclusive that the Republican Party is insensible to or impotent for the redress of those wrongs, and should no longer be intrusted with the powers and responsibilities of government; that although this party in its late National Convention was silent on the liquor question, not so its candidates, Messrs. Blaine and Logan. Within the year past Mr. Blaine has publicly recommended that the revenues derived from the liquor traffic shall be distributed among the States, and Senator Logan has by a bill proposed to devote these revenues to the support of the schools; thus both virtually recommend the perpetuation of the traffic, and that the State and its citizens shall become partners in the liquor crime.

The fact that the Democratic Party has in its National deliverance of party policy arrayed itself on the side of the drink-makers and sellers by declaring against the policy of prohibition of such traffic under the false name of "Sumptuary Laws," and when in power in some of the States in refusing remedial legislation, and in Congress of refusing to permit the creation of a Board by Inquiry to investigate and report upon the effects of this traffic, proves that the Democratic Party should not be intrusted with power or place.

That there can be no greater peril to the nation than the existing competition of the Republican and Democratic parties for the liquor vote. Experience shows that any party not openly opposed to the traffic will engage in this competition, will court the favor of the criminal classes, will barter away the public morals, the purity of the ballot, and every trust and object of good government for party success, and patriots and good citizens should find in this practice sufficient cause for immediate withdrawal from all connection with their party.

That we favor reforms in the administration of the Government, in the abolition of all sinecures, useless offices and officers, in the election of the post-office officers of the Government instead of appointment by the President; that competency, honesty and sobriety are essential qualifications for holding civil office, and we oppose the removal of such persons from mere administrative offices, except so far as it may be absolutely necessary to secure effectiveness to the vital issues on which the general administration of the Government has intrusted to a party; that the collection of revenues from alcohol, liquors and tobacco should be abolished, as the vices of men and not a proper subject for taxation; that revenues for customs duties should be levied for the support of the Government economically administered, and when so levied the fostering of American labor, manufactures and industries should constantly be held in view; that the public land should be held for homes for the people and not for gifts to corporations, or to be held in large bodies for speculation upon the needs of actual settlers.

That all money, coin and paper, shall be made, issued and regulated by the General Government, and shall be a legal tender for all debts, public and private.

That grateful care and support should be given to our soldiers and sailors, their dependent widows and orphans, disabled in the service of the country.

That we repudiate as un-American, contrary to and subversive of the principles of the Declaration of Independence, from which our Government has grown to be the Government of fifty-five millions of people, and a recognized power among the nations, that any person or people shall or may be excluded from residence or citizenship, with all others who may desire the benefits which our institutions confer upon the oppressed of all nations.

That while there are important reforms that are demanded for purity of administration and the welfare of the people, their importance sinks into insignificance when compared with the reform of the drink traffic, which annually wastes $800,000,000 of the wealth created by toil and thrift, and drags down thousands of families from comfort to poverty; which fills jails, penitentiaries, insane asylums, hospitals, and institutions for dependency; which destroys the health, saps industry and causes loss of life and property to thousands in the land; lowers intellectual and physical vigor, dulls the cunning hand of the artisan, is the chief cause of bankruptcy, insolvency and loss in trade, and by its corrupting power endangers the perpetuity of free institutions.

That Congress should exercise its undoubted power, and prohibit the manufacture and sale of intoxicating beverages in the District of Columbia, the Territories of the United States, in all places over which the Government has exclusive jurisdiction; that hereafter no State shall be admitted into the Union until its Constitution shall expressly prohibit polygamy and the manufacture and sale of intoxicating beverages.

We earnestly call the attention of the laborer and the mechanic, the miner and manufacturer, and ask investigation of the baneful effects upon labor and industry caused by the needless liquor business, which will be found the robber who lessens wages and profits, the destroyer of the happiness and family welfare of the laboring man; and that labor and all legitimate industry demand deliverance from taxation and loss which this traffic imposes; and that no tariff or other legislation can so healthily stimulate production, or increase a demand for capital and labor, or produce so much of comfort and content as the suppressing of this traffic would bring to the laboring man, mechanic, or employer of labor, throughout our land.

That the activity and co-operation of the women of America for the promotion of temperance, has, in all the history of the past, been a strength and encouragement, which we gratefully acknowledge and record. In the latter and present phase of the movement for prohibition of the licensed traffic by the abolition of the drink saloon, the purity of purpose and method, the earnestness, zeal, intelligence, and devotion, of the mothers and daughters of the Women's Christian Temperance Union have been eminently blessed by God. Kansas and Iowa have been given her as "sheafs" of rejoicing, and the education and arousing of the public mind, and the demand for constitutional amendment now prevailing, are largely the fruit of her prayers and labors, and we rejoice to have our Christian women unite with us in sharing the labor that shall bring the abolition of traffic to the polls. She shall join in the grand "Praise God, from whom all blessings flow," when by law our boys and friends shall be free from legal drink and temptation.

That we believe in the civil and political equality of the sexes, and that the ballot in the hand of woman is a right for her protection, and would prove a powerful ally for the abolition of the drink saloon, the execution of law, the promotion of reform in civil affairs, and the removal of corruption in public life; and thus believing, we relegate the practical out-working of this reform to the discretion of the Prohibition Party in the several States, according to the condition of public sentiment in those States. That, gratefully, we acknowledge and praise God for the presence of His Spirit, guiding our counsels and granting the success which has been vouchsafed in the progress of temperance reform; and looking to Him from whom all wisdom and help come, we ask the voters of the United States to make the principles of the above declaration a ruling principle in the Government of the Nation and of the States.

Resolved, That henceforth the Prohibition Home Protection Party, shall be called by the name of the Prohibition Party.

NATIONAL ANTI-MONOPOLY PLATFOM.

ADOPTED AT CHICAGO, MAY 14, 1884.

The Anti-Monopoly Organization of the United States in convention assembled, declares:

First—That labor and capital should be allies, and we demand justice for both by protecting the rights of all against privileges for the few.

Second—That corporations, the creatures of law, should be controlled by law.

Third—That we propose the greatest reduction practicable in public expenses.

Fourth—That in the enactment and vigorous execution of just laws, equality of rights, equality of burdens, equality of privileges and equality of powers in all citizens will be secured.

To this end we further declare:

Fifth—That it is the duty of the Government to immediately exercise its constitutional prerogative to regulate commerce among the States. The great instruments by which this commerce are carried on are transportation, money, and the transmission of intelligence. They are now mercilessly controlled by giant monopolies, to the impoverishment of labor, and the crushing out of healthful competition, and the destruction of business security. We hold it therefore, to be the imperative and immediate duty of Congress to pass all needful laws for the control and regulation of these great agents of commerce in accordance with the oft-repeated decisions of the Supreme Court of the United States.

Sixth—That these monopolies, which have exacted from enterprise such heavy tribute have also inflicted countless wrongs upon the toiling millions of the United States, and no system of reform should commend itself to the support of the people which does not protect the man who earns his bread by the sweat of his face. Bureaus of labor statistics must be established, both State and National; arbitration take the place of brute force in the settlement of disputes between employer and employed; the National eight-hour law be honestly enforced; the importation of foreign labor under contract be made illegal; and whatever practical reforms may be necessary for the protection of united labor must be granted, to the end that unto the toiler shall be given that proportion of the profits of the thing or value created which his labor bears to the cost of production.

Seventh—That we approve and favor the passage of an Inter-State Commerce bill. Navigable waters should be improved by the Government and be free.

Eighth—We demand the payment of the bonded debt as it falls due; the election of the United States Senators by the direct vote of the people of their respective States; a graduated income tax; and a tariff, which is a tax upon the people, that shall be so levied as to bear as lightly as possible upon necessaries. We denounce the present tariff as being largely in the interest of monopoly, and demand that it be speedily and radically reformed in the interest of labor instead of capital.

Ninth—That no further grants of public lands shall be made to corporations. All enactments granting land to corporations should be strictly construed, and all land grants should be forfeited where the terms upon which the grants were made have not been strictly complied with. The public lands must be held for homes for actual settlers, and must not be subject to purchase or control by non-resident foreigners or other speculators.

Tenth—That we deprecate the discrimination of American legislation against the greatest of American industries—agriculture, by which it has been deprived of nearly all beneficial legislation, while forced to bear the brunt of taxation. And we demand for it the fostering care of Government and the just recognition of its importance in the development and advancement of our land. And we appeal to the American farmer to co operate with us in our endeavors to advance the National interests of the country, and the overthrow of monopoly in every shape when and wherever found.

VALUE OF PROPERTY OWNED BY THE CITY OF NEW YORK.

In 1871 an appraisement was made by Messrs. Bleecker, Palmer and Muller of the real estate belonging to the City, but the report was not printed.

The following is a summary of that appraisement:

The Central Park, containing 10,000 lots, at $10,000 each	$100,000,000
Twenty smaller parks and places	33,000,000
Ten public markets	5,000,000
City lots not in public use	4,000,000
Water lots and Brooklyn lots	1,500,000
Seventy Piers, North and East rivers	5,000,000
Croton Aqueduct property	100,000,000
Fire Department—Land, buildings and apparatus	3,500,000
Police Stations, etc	1,500,000
Public Education—Land and buildings	6,000,000
Courts, prisons and the like, and islands in the East river	7,500,000
Total	$267,000,000

No material changes have been made in the property of the city, except improvements of parks, docks, wharves, expenditures for Brooklyn Bridge, New County Court-house and other public buildings, amounting to many millions of dollars. The depreciation in value of real estate would, of course, somewhat reduce an appraisement at this time.
